Fixed Rate Reset Senior Preferred Notes due December 2027

The issue price of the €50,000,000 Fixed Rate Reset Senior Preferred Notes due December 2027 (the “Notes”) of Ibercaja Banco, S.A. (the “Issuer”, the “Bank” or “Ibercaja Banco”) is 99.754% of their principal amount. The Notes have been issued in denominations of €100,000. The Notes were issued on 2 December 2021 (the “Issue Date”). The Bank and its consolidated subsidiaries are referred to herein as the “Group”.

As described in the terms and conditions of the Notes (the “Conditions”), unless previously redeemed, the Notes will be redeemed at their principal amount on 2 December 2027. The Notes may be redeemed at the option of the Bank in whole, but not in part, at their principal amount, together with any accrued and unpaid interest thereon to (but excluding) the date fixed for redemption, subject to the conditions set out in Condition 4.2 including, without limitation, obtaining prior Supervisory Permission, if a Tax Event or a Disqualification Event occurs (as such terms are defined in the Conditions). See Conditions 4.4 and 4.5.

In addition, the Bank may at its option, subject to the conditions set out in Condition 4.2 including, without limitation, obtaining prior Supervisory Permission, redeem all, but not some only, of the Notes on the Reset Date, at their principal amount, together with any accrued and unpaid interest thereon to (but excluding) the date fixed for redemption. See Condition 4.3.

The Notes bear interest on their outstanding principal amount (i) at a fixed rate of 1.125% per annum from (and including) the Issue Date to (but excluding) the Reset Date (as defined in the Conditions) payable annually in arrear on 2 December in each year, with the first Interest Payment Date on 2 December 2022, and (ii) from (and including) the Reset Date (as defined in the Conditions), at the Reset Rate of Interest (the sum of the 1-year Mid Swap Rate (as defined in the Conditions) plus 1.25% per annum (the “Margin”)), as determined by the Bank, payable in arrear on 2 December 2027. Payments on the Notes will be made in Euro without deduction for or on account of taxes imposed or levied by the Kingdom of Spain to the extent described under Condition 7.

The payment obligations of the Bank under the Notes on account of principal constitute direct, unconditional, unsubordinated and unsecured ordinary claims (“créditos ordinarios”) of the Bank, as more fully described in Condition 2. The Notes are expected to be eligible for MREL (as defined in section “Risk factors – Increasingly onerous capital requirements constitute one of the Group’s main regulatory challenges”) purposes of the Group.

Subject to the prior Supervisory Permission and to compliance with the Applicable Banking Regulations, if a Disqualification Event or Tax Event has occurred and is continuing, the Bank may substitute all (but not some only) of the Notes or vary the terms of all (but not some only) of the Notes, without the consent of the Holders (as defined below), so that they become or remain Qualifying Notes (as defined in the Conditions).

This document (together with the information incorporated by reference) constitutes a listing prospectus (the “Prospectus”) for the purposes of Article 3 of Regulation (EU) 2017/1129 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 14 June 2017 (the “Prospectus Regulation”) and has been prepared in accordance with, and including the information required by Annexes 7 and 15 of Delegated Regulation (EU) 2019/980 of 14 March 2019. The CNMV has only approved this Prospectus as meeting the standards of completeness, comprehensibility and consistency imposed by the Prospectus

Regulation. Such an approval should not be considered as an endorsement of the Bank or the quality of the Notes that are the subject of this Prospectus. Investors should make their own assessment as to the suitability of investing in the Notes. Application has been made for the Notes to be admitted to trading on the Spanish AIAF Fixed Income Securities Market (“AIAF”). AIAF is a regulated market for the purposes of Directive 2014/65/EU on markets in financial instruments directive (as amended, “MiFID II”).

Amounts payable under the Notes from and including the Reset Date are calculated by reference to the 1-year Mid-Swap Rate (as defined in the Conditions) expressed as an annual rate which (a) appears on the “ICESWAP2” screen, which is provided by ICE Benchmark Administration Limited or (b) by reference to EURIBOR 6-month (as defined in the Conditions) which appears on the “EURIBOR01” screen, which is provided by the European Money Markets Institute. As of the date of this Prospectus ICE Benchmark Administration Limited is not included in ESMA’s register of administrators and benchmarks under Article 36 of the Regulation (EU) No 2016/1011 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 8 June 2016 (as amended, the “Benchmark Regulation”), the transitional provisions in Article 51 of the Benchmark Regulation apply such that ICE Benchmark Administration Limited is not currently required to obtain recognition, endorsement or equivalence. As of the date of this Prospectus, the European Money Markets Institute appears on the register of administrators and benchmarks established and maintained by ESMA pursuant to Article 36 of the Benchmark Regulation.

Title to the Notes is evidenced by book entries, and each person shown in the central registry of the Spanish settlement system managed by Sociedad de Gestión de los Sistemas de Registro, Compensación y Liquidación de Valores, S.A. Unipersonal (“Iberclear”) and in the registries maintained by the participating entities (entidades participantes) in Iberclear (“Iberclear Members”) as having an interest in the Notes shall be (except as otherwise required by Spanish law) considered the holder of the principal amount of the Notes recorded therein (a “Holder”).

The Notes are complex financial instruments and are not a suitable or appropriate investment for all investors. Prospective purchasers of the Notes should ensure that they understand the nature of the Notes and the extent of their exposure to risks and that they consider the suitability of the Notes as an investment in the light of their own circumstances and financial condition.

An investment in the Notes involves certain risks. For a discussion of these risks see “Risk Factors” beginning on page 12.

The Notes have not been, and will not be, registered under the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “U.S. Securities Act”) or any U.S. state securities laws, and are subject to United States tax law requirements. The Notes are being offered outside the United States in accordance with Regulation S under the U.S. Securities Act (“Regulation S”), and may not be offered, sold or delivered within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons (as defined in Regulation S) except pursuant to an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the U.S. Securities Act.

The Lead Manager does not undertake to review the financial condition or affairs of Ibercaja Banco or the Group during the life of the arrangements contemplated by this Prospectus nor to advise any investor or potential investor in the Notes of any information coming to the attention of the Lead Manager.

This Prospectus does not constitute an offer of, or an invitation to subscribe for or purchase, any Notes.

The distribution of this Prospectus and the offering, sale and delivery of Notes in certain jurisdictions may be restricted by law. Persons into whose possession this Prospectus comes are required by Ibercaja Banco and the Lead Manager to inform themselves about and to observe any such restrictions. For a description of certain restrictions on offers, sales and deliveries of Notes and on distribution of this Prospectus and other offering material relating to the Notes, see “Subscription and sale”.

In particular, the Notes have not been and will not be registered under the U.S. Securities Act and are subject to United States tax law requirements. Subject to certain exceptions, Notes may not be offered, sold or delivered within the United States or to U.S. persons.

In this Prospectus, unless otherwise specified, references to a “Member State” are references to a Member State of the European Economic Area (“EEA”), references to “EUR” or “euro” are to the currency introduced at the start of the third stage of European economic and monetary union, and as defined in Article 2 of Council Regulation (EC) No 974/98 of 3 May 1998 on the introduction of the euro, as amended. References to “billions” are to thousands of millions.

Certain figures included in this Prospectus have been subject to rounding adjustments; accordingly, figures shown for the same category presented in different tables may vary slightly and figures shown as totals in certain tables may not be an arithmetic aggregation of the figures which precede them.

Words and expressions defined in the Conditions shall have the same meanings when used elsewhere in this Prospectus unless otherwise specified.

This Prospectus includes forward-looking statements that reflect the Bank’s intentions, beliefs or current expectations and projections about its future results of operations, financial condition, liquidity, performance, prospects, anticipated growth, strategies, plans, opportunities, trends and the market in which it operates. These forward-looking statements are based on numerous assumptions regarding the Bank’s present and future business and the environment in which it expects to operate in the future and have not been verified by an independent entity; the accuracy, completeness or correctness thereof should not be relied upon. The forward-looking events described in this Prospectus may not occur. These forward-looking statements speak only as at the date on which they are made. Except as otherwise required by applicable securities law and regulations and by any applicable stock exchange regulations, the Bank undertakes no obligation to update publicly or revise publicly any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events, changed circumstances or any other reason after the date of this Prospectus. Given the uncertainty inherent in forward-looking statements, the Bank cautions prospective investors not to place undue reliance on these statements.

Potential investors are advised to exercise caution in relation to any purchase of the Notes. If a potential investor is in any doubt about any of the contents of this Prospectus, it should obtain independent professional advice. Prior to making an investment decision, potential investors should consider carefully, in light of their own financial circumstances and investment objectives, all the information contained in this Prospectus or incorporated by reference herein.

The Notes are complex financial instruments and are not a suitable or appropriate investment for all investors. Each potential investor in the Notes must determine the suitability of that investment in light of its own circumstances. In particular, each potential investor may wish to consider, either on its own or with the help of its financial and other professional advisers, whether it:

- (i) has sufficient knowledge and experience to make a meaningful evaluation of the Notes, the merits and risks of investing in the Notes and the information contained or incorporated by reference in this Prospectus, taking into account that the Notes are a suitable investment for professional or institutional investors only;
- (ii) has access to, and knowledge of, appropriate analytical tools to evaluate, in the context of its particular financial situation, an investment in the Notes and the impact the Notes will have on its overall investment portfolio;
- (iii) has sufficient financial resources and liquidity to bear all of the risks of an investment in the Notes, including where the currency for payments in respect of the Notes is different from the potential investor’s currency;
- (iv) understands thoroughly the terms of the Notes, including the provisions relating to redemption or substitution of the Notes and any variation of their terms, and is familiar with the behaviour of financial markets; and

- (v) is able to evaluate possible scenarios for economic, interest rate and other factors that may affect its investment and its ability to bear the applicable risks.

A potential investor should not invest in the Notes unless it has the expertise (either alone or with its financial and other professional advisers) to evaluate how the Notes will perform under changing conditions, the resulting effects on the value of the Notes and the impact this investment will have on the potential investor's overall portfolio.

The Notes are rated BB+ by Fitch. Similar ratings assigned to different types of securities do not necessarily mean the same thing and any rating assigned to the Notes does not address the likelihood that interest (including any additional amounts payable in accordance with Condition 7) or any other payments in respect of the Notes will be made on any particular date or at all. Credit ratings also do not address the marketability or market price of securities.

A credit rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be subject to revision, suspension or withdrawal, at any time, by the assigning rating organisation. Potential investors should not rely on any rating of the Notes and should make their investment decision in light of its own circumstances. Neither the Bank nor the Lead Manager participate in any decision making of the rating agencies and any revision or withdrawal of any credit rating assigned to the Bank or any securities of the Bank is a third party decision for which neither the Bank nor the Lead Manager assume any responsibility.

PROHIBITION OF SALES TO EEA RETAIL INVESTORS – The Notes are not intended to be offered, sold or otherwise made available to and should not be offered, sold or otherwise made available to any retail investor in the EEA. For these purposes, a retail investor means a person who is one (or more) of: (i) a retail client as defined in point (11) of Article 4(1) of MiFID II; or (ii) a customer within the meaning of Directive (EU) 2016/97 (as amended, the “Insurance Distribution Directive”), where that customer would not qualify as a professional client as defined in point (10) of Article 4(1) of MiFID II. Consequently, no key information document required by Regulation (EU) No 1286/2014 (the “EU PRIIPs Regulation”) for offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to retail investors in the EEA has been prepared and therefore offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to any retail investor in the EEA may be unlawful under the EU PRIIPs Regulation.

PROHIBITION OF SALES TO UK RETAIL INVESTORS – The Notes are not intended to be offered, sold or otherwise made available to and should not be offered, sold or otherwise made available to any retail investor in the United Kingdom (“UK”). For these purposes, a retail investor means a person who is one (or more) of: (i) a retail client, as defined in point (8) of Article 2 of Regulation (EU) No 2017/565 as it forms part of domestic law of the UK by virtue of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 (“EUWA”); or (ii) a customer within the meaning of the provisions of the Financial Services Market Act (“FSMA”) and any rules or regulations made under the FSMA to implement Directive (EU) 2016/97, where that customer would not qualify as a professional client, as defined in point (8) of Article 2(1) of Regulation (EU) No 600/2014 as it forms part of domestic law of the UK by virtue of the EUWA. Consequently no key information document required by Regulation (EU) No 1286/2014 as it forms part of domestic law of the UK by virtue of the EUWA (the “UK PRIIPs Regulation”) for offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to retail investors in the UK has been prepared and therefore offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to any retail investor in the UK may be unlawful under the UK PRIIPs Regulation.

MIFID II PRODUCT GOVERNANCE / PROFESSIONAL INVESTORS AND ELIGIBLE COUNTERPARTIES ONLY TARGET MARKET – Solely for the purposes of each manufacturer's product approval process, the target market assessment in respect of the Notes has led to the conclusion that: (i) the target market for the Notes is eligible counterparties and professional clients only, each as defined in MiFID II; and (ii) all channels for distribution of the Notes to eligible counterparties and professional clients are appropriate. Any person subsequently offering, selling or recommending the Notes (a “distributor”) should take into consideration the manufacturers’ target market assessment; however, a distributor subject to MiFID II is responsible for undertaking its own target market assessment in respect of the Notes (by either adopting or refining the manufacturers’ target market assessment) and determining appropriate distribution channels.

UK MiFIR PRODUCT GOVERNANCE / PROFESSIONAL INVESTORS AND ELIGIBLE COUNTERPARTIES ONLY TARGET MARKET – Solely for the purposes of each manufacturer’s product approval process, the target market assessment in respect of the Notes has led to the conclusion that: (i) the target market for the Notes is only eligible counterparties, as defined in the FCA Handbook Conduct of Business Sourcebook (“COBS”), and professional clients, as defined in Regulation (EU) No 600/2014 as it forms part of domestic law of the UK by virtue of the EUWA (“UK MiFIR”); and (ii) all channels for distribution of the Notes to eligible counterparties and professional clients are appropriate. Any person subsequently offering, selling or recommending the Notes (a “distributor”) should take into consideration the manufacturers’ target market assessment; however, a distributor subject to the FCA Handbook Product Intervention and Product Governance Sourcebook is responsible for undertaking its own target market assessment in respect of the Notes (by either adopting or refining the manufacturers’ target market assessment) and determining appropriate distribution channels.

RISK FACTORS

The Issuer declares that the information contained in this Prospectus includes the instructions and recommendations received, when appropriate, from the prudential supervisory authorities (i.e. European Central Bank and Bank of Spain) and that may have an impact on the financial statements and risks described hereinafter.

Any investment in the Notes is subject to a number of risks. Prior to investing in the Notes, prospective investors should carefully consider risk factors associated with any investment in the Notes, the business of the Issuer (and the Group) and the industry in which it operates together with all other information contained in this Prospectus, including, in particular the risk factors described below. Words and expressions defined in the “Conditions of the Notes” below or elsewhere in this Prospectus have the same meanings in this section.

Only risks which are specific and material to the Issuer and to the Notes are included herein as required by the Prospectus Regulation. Additional risks and uncertainties relating to the Issuer or the Group that are not currently known to the Issuer or that it currently deems immaterial or that apply generally to the banking industry for which reason have not been included herein, may individually or cumulatively also have a material adverse effect on the business, prospects, results of operations and/or financial position of the Issuer or the Group and, if any such risk should occur, the price of the Notes may decline and investors could lose all or part of their investment. Investors should consider carefully whether an investment in the Notes is suitable for them in light of the information in this Prospectus and their personal circumstances. Risks that apply generally to securities with the characteristics of the Notes (for instance, risks related to the reset of the interest rate of the Notes on the Reset Date, risks related to modifications of the Notes approved by a meeting of Holders of the Notes, risks related to the absence of limitations on the amount or type of further securities or indebtedness which the Bank may incur, or risks related to fluctuations in market interest rates), that apply generally to negotiable securities such as those related to the secondary market in general (for instance, illiquidity or price fluctuations) and those related to the credit ratings assigned to the Notes (such as changes in the credit ratings or the assignment of unsolicited ratings) have not been included herein. However, such additional risks may affect the value and liquidity of the Notes.

Risks relating to the Group’s operations

The Group’s businesses are concentrated in Spain and primarily depend on the condition of the Spanish economy

The Group conducts all of its business in Spain, particularly in the autonomous regions of Aragón and La Rioja and the provinces of Guadalajara, Burgos and Badajoz (together, the “Home Markets”) which represented 61.87% of its recurring revenues^{APM} for the nine months ended 30 September 2021 (59.18% and 57.00% for the year ended 31 December 2020 and 2019, respectively) and in Madrid and the Mediterranean basin, which includes the autonomous regions of Catalonia and the Valencian Community (together, the “Growth Markets”) which represented 30.68% of its recurring revenues^{APM} for the nine months ended 30 September 2021 (32.53% and 34.04% for the year ended 31 December 2020 and 2019, respectively). All of the Group’s consolidated assets are located in Spain and all of its revenue is derived from Spain. Consequently, the income generated by most of the products the Group sells and by the services it provides depends on the performance of the Spanish economy. Economic conditions affect demand for the Group’s products and services, funding costs and asset quality.

The performance of the Spanish economy is highly correlated to the performance of other economies so it could be negatively affected by weak economic conditions in other economies, whether developed or emerging, particularly within the EEA, which may be caused by the consequences of the withdrawal of the UK from the European Union, global trade tensions and several political and geopolitical risks. In addition, the spread and effects of the COVID-19 pandemic have adversely affected all economies, including the Spanish economy, which has negatively impacted all financial metrics of the Group and deteriorated the solvency of certain of its clients and counterparties. See “Risk Factors— The Group is subject to several risks as a result of the effects of the COVID-19 pandemic”.

The Group is subject to several risks as a result of the effects of the COVID-19 pandemic

On 11 March 2020, the World Health Organization classified COVID-19 as an international pandemic. To cope with this situation in Spain, the Spanish government declared a State of Alarm by virtue of Royal Decree 463/2020, of 14 March, imposing several restrictions on mobility and on the exercise of non-essential activities, which was extended until 21 June 2020. In light of a new COVID-19 outbreak, in October 2020, pursuant to Royal Decree 926/2020, of 25 October, the Spanish government declared a new State of Alarm which was extended until 9 May 2021.

Several measures were implemented to try to limit the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic both by European and Spanish authorities, including:

- (i) the European Central Bank (“ECB”) adopted measures to grant liquidity to the system, to favour credit and to allow European governments to temporarily adopt expansionary fiscal policies. These measures included, among others, the relaxation of solvency and liquidity demands, the flexibilization of the handling of doubtful loans backed by public guarantees (as indicated below) or affected by the Legal Moratoria, and the review of the capital requirements banking regulations by the European Commission, known as the Quick Fix (as defined in “Capital, liquidity and funding requirements and loss absorbing powers”) which came into force on 21 June 2020. Among others, the Quick Fix has delayed the application of the leverage ratio buffer requirement for G-SIIs which was due to come in force on 28 June 2021 and will now not be implemented until 1 January 2023, and introduced a more favourable treatment of certain types of exposures and risks when calculating the leverage ratio for all credit institutions, as a result of which the banks will be allowed to exempt certain exposures from the total exposure measure until 31 March 2022. See “Capital, liquidity and funding requirements and loss absorbing powers”. In addition, the EU approved the European Recovery Fund which, through transfers and loans, will support the most affected European economies during the coming years;
- (ii) the Spanish Government established a legislative moratoria for individuals and professionals which, under certain vulnerability requirements, could temporarily suspend their payment obligations (such as receivables) (the “Legal Moratoria”). In addition to the Legal Moratoria, those credit institutions, including Ibercaja, which are members of the “Confederación Española de Cajas de Ahorro” (“CECA”) agreed to implement a sectorial moratoria in order to extend the scope of the Legal Moratoria (the “Sectorial Moratoria”). The deadline for beneficiaries to apply for the Legal Moratoria and the Sectorial Moratoria expired on 30 March 2021;
- (iii) credit facility lines partially guaranteed by the Spanish government through the “Instituto de Crédito Oficial” (“ICO”) were made available to companies facing liquidity constraints (the “Guaranteed Credit Lines”). The deadline for beneficiaries to apply for the Guaranteed Credit Lines will expire on 31 December 2021; and
- (iv) on 11 May 2021 the Spanish government approved a code of good practices in order to establish the framework under which those credit institutions voluntarily acceding to such code could negotiate with their customers the implementation of different measures in relation to their Guaranteed Credit Lines (the “Code of Good Practices”).

In addition to the application of the Legal Moratoria and the Sectorial Moratoria, the Group voluntarily implemented other measures (both of a financial and service nature) to support customers, especially in the economic sectors which were most adversely affected by the COVID-19 pandemic, including, among others, the implementation of Guaranteed Credit Lines, advances on pensions and unemployment benefits, reinforcement of communication channels with customers, etc. On 20 May 2021, the Group also acceded to the Code of Good Practices showing its commitment to implement diverse measures to provide its customers with more flexible terms for their Guaranteed Credit Lines.

Up to 30 September 2021, the Group had formalized Legal Moratoria and Sectorial Moratoria measures affecting 9,054 transactions amounting to €759,239 thousand (compared to 8,664 transactions amounting to €366,129 thousand as of 31 December 2020). As of 30 September 2021, Legal Moratoria and Sectorial Moratoria measures affecting transactions amounting to €663,283 thousand had expired with no significant impact in asset quality (only 3.5% of matured Legal Moratoria and Sectorial Moratoria has been classified as Stage 3 (NPLs) as of such date)¹, thus resulting in an outstanding balance of €95,957 thousand in transactions affected by these measures, representing 0.31% of its gross loans and advances to customers^{APM2}. The expiration calendar of the Legal Moratoria and Sectorial Moratoria measures affecting such outstanding balance as of 30 September 2021³ was as follows: (i) €72,150 thousand within 3 months (representing 75.3% of the outstanding principal amount of loans and advances subject to Legal Moratoria and Sectorial Moratoria); (ii) €21,044 thousand within 3 and 6 months (representing 21.9% of the outstanding principal amount of loans and advances subject to Legal Moratoria and Sectorial Moratoria); (iii) €622 thousand within 6 and 9 months (representing 0.6% of the outstanding principal amount of loans and advances subject to Legal Moratoria and Sectorial Moratoria); and (iv) €2,141 thousand within 9 and 12 months (representing 2.2% of the outstanding principal amount of loans and advances subject to Legal Moratoria and Sectorial Moratoria).

Up to 30 September 2021, the Group had entered into 19,581 Guaranteed Credit Lines transactions, both for SMEs and self-employed and for large companies, where principal granted amounted on an accumulated basis to € 2,093,088 thousand (€1,829,587 thousand as of 31 December 2020). As of 30 September 2021, the amount guaranteed by the Spanish government through the ICO amounted to 61.13% of the total amount granted by the Group to SMEs and the self-employed and large companies. The outstanding balance of the total principal amount granted by the Group under the Guaranteed Credit Lines drawn amounted to € 1,660,645 thousand, representing 20.51% of the Group's loans to businesses⁴ as of 30 September 2021 (€1,454,067 thousand representing 18.28% of the Group's loans to businesses⁴ as of 31 December 2020).

In addition, pursuant to Royal Decree-Law 34/2020, of 17 November, customers have been able to apply for a voluntary extension of their Guaranteed Credit Lines, which the Group was required to accept. The Group believes that customers who have requested an extension of their Guaranteed Credit Lines (presumably due to their inability to punctually meet their payment obligations) are more likely to result in default in the future. As of 30 September 2021, the Group had extended the initial maturity of 36.4% of the total principal amount granted by the Group under the Guaranteed Credit Lines. Guaranteed Credit Lines can be extended for up to a maximum of three years (on average, as of 30 September 2021, the Group's customers have extended their Guaranteed Credit Lines with the Group for 25.7 months).

The most relevant impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on the Group's results in 2020 was an extraordinary credit risk provision of €90,124 thousand, of which €52,000 thousand was recorded as a post-model adjustment to cover the increase in credit risk of customers who were not in default at the end of 2020, but who, due to the persistent deterioration of the macroeconomic situation, were expected to move to Stage 2 in 2021 when drafting the 2020 Annual Accounts. As of 30 September 2021, the Group is analysing this development and has therefore decided to maintain this post-model adjustment of €52,000 thousand.

In relation to the quality of the Group's credit portfolio, the main impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on its results for the nine months ended 30 September 2021 was the increase of transactions classified as Stage 2 (over 15.5% volume increase since 31 December 2019⁵), which meant that the impairment risk of the Group's credit portfolio had significantly increased since the date on which they were initially recognised. The Group cannot give assurance that transactions classified as Stage 2 will not end up being classified as Stage 3 (non-performing) transactions in the next months or years, which could result in losses. As of 30 September 2021, 5.20% of the Group's gross loans and advances to customers^{APM} was classified as Stage 2⁶ (4.31% as of 31 December 2019⁴).

The COVID-19 pandemic, together with the exceptional measures implemented to mitigate its effects, could continue to have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects due to, among other factors:

- (a) longer periods of low or even negative interest rates as a consequence of the economic contraction and the efforts by the ECB to reactivate the Eurozone economy by means of debt purchase programs affecting the Group as described in "Risk factors - Changes in interest rates or continued low interest rates may negatively affect the Group's business", and
- (b) a continued decrease in the global and local economic activity which increases the Group's credit risk and its cost of risk as a consequence of the contraction of GDP in 2020 and first quarter of 2021, increased unemployment, the reduction of the Group's customers' income and the increase of the probability of default in its credit portfolio. In particular, there are economic sectors which have been particularly affected by the economic consequences of the COVID-19 pandemic, such as transport and storage, accommodation and arts, entertainment and recreation , which together amounted to

The Group's business is significantly affected by the credit risk of its customers and counterparties

The Group is exposed to the creditworthiness of its customers and counterparties. Credit risk can be defined as potential losses resulting from the full or partial breach of the debt repayment obligations by a counterparty or customer (including, but not limited to, the insolvency of a counterparty or customer), and also includes the value loss as a consequence of the deterioration of the credit quality of a counterparty or a customer. Credit risk is the most significant risk in respect of the Group's business activities.

The following table sets forth below the Group's credit exposure as of 30 September 2021:

Adverse changes in the credit quality of the Group's customers and counterparties could affect the recoverability and value of its assets and require the Group to increase its provisions for bad and doubtful debts and other related provisions.

In particular, the Group routinely transacts with counterparties in the financial services industry, including brokers and dealers, commercial banks, investment banks, mutual and hedge funds and other institutional clients. The Group's credit exposure to counterparty risk amounted to €274,632⁸ thousand as of 30 September 2021 (€306,671 thousand and €941,988 thousand as of 31 December 2020 and 2019, respectively).

Defaults by, and even rumors or questions about the solvency of, certain financial institutions and the financial services industry generally have led to market-wide liquidity problems and could lead to losses or defaults by other institutions. These liquidity concerns have had, and may continue to have, an unsettling effect on inter-institutional financial transactions in general. Many of the routine transactions the Group enters into expose it to significant credit risk in the event of default by one of its significant counterparties.

A weakening in the Group's customers' and counterparties' creditworthiness would also impact its capital adequacy. The regulatory capital levels the Group is required to maintain are calculated as a percentage of its risk-weighted assets ("RWAs"). If the creditworthiness of a customer or a counterparty declines, the Group would lower their rating, which would presumably result in an increase in its RWAs, which potentially could deteriorate its capital adequacy ratios and limit its lending or investments in other operations.

On 15 March 2018, the ECB published an Addendum (as defined below) to the ECB guidance to banks on non-performing loans ("NPLs") published on 20 March 2017, which specifies the ECB supervisory expectations for prudent levels of provisions for new NPLs. In this respect, the ECB assesses any differences between banks' practices and the prudential provisioning expectations at least annually and links the supervisory expectations in the Addendum to new NPLs classified as such from 1 April 2018 onwards. The ECB supervisory measures are adapted to each entity based on the evolution of its NPL coverage levels. Such supervisory expectations for NPL provisioning have added more pressure on financial results. As part of the European Commission's package of measures aimed at addressing the risks related to high levels of NPLs in Europe, Regulation (EU) 2019/630 of 17 April 2019 amending CRR (as defined below) as regards minimum loss coverage for non-performing exposures ("NPEs") ("Regulation 2019/630") introduced a clear set of conditions for the classification of NPEs. The ECB further revised its supervisory expectations for prudential provisioning of new NPEs taking into account Regulation 2019/630. See "Capital, liquidity and funding requirements and loss absorbing powers—Prudential treatment of NPLs".

Notwithstanding the foregoing, on 20 March 2020, among the package of measures adopted by the ECB in response to the COVID-19 pandemic, there were certain measures introducing supervisory flexibility regarding the treatment of NPLs, in particular to allow banks to support credit flows to companies and households and at the same time benefit from the guarantees and moratoriums put in place by public authorities to tackle the COVID-19 distress. However, when the abovementioned flexibility expires or is limited, the Group could be required to classify certain of its exposures under forbearance or as defaulted under distressed restructuring, and in consequence, the Group will need to grant additional provisions which could negatively impact its results from operations. See "Capital, liquidity and funding requirements and loss absorbing powers—Prudential treatment of NPLs".

Changes in interest rates or continued low interest rates may negatively affect the Group's business

The Group's results of operations depend upon the level of its net interest income, which is the difference between gross interest income from loans and other interest-earning assets and interest expense paid to its depositors and other interest-bearing liabilities. The Group's net interest income amounted to €370,615 thousand in the nine months ended 30 September 2021, representing 50.64% of its consolidated gross income in such period (€731,899 thousand). The Group's net interest income amounted to €533,673 thousand and €547,246 thousand in the years ended 31 December 2020 and 2019 representing 53.27% and 59.06% of its consolidated gross income in those years⁹.

Interest rates are highly sensitive to many factors beyond the Group's control, including fiscal and monetary policies of governments and central banks and regulation of the financial sector in the European Union, as well as domestic and international economic and political conditions and other factors. In particular, interest rates have been negatively impacted by the debt securities purchase programme established by the ECB in March 2020 to mitigate the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic (the "PEPP programme"). In 2021, the ECB announced that the interest rates on the main refinancing operations, the interest rates on the marginal lending facility and the deposit facility would remain unchanged at 0.00%, 0.25% and -0.50% respectively and that the PEPP programme would remain in place until March 2022. In addition, on 7 July 2021 the ECB announced its new monetary policy strategy, setting a symmetric two per cent inflation target.

Changes in market interest rates affect the spread between interest rates charged on interest-earning assets and interest rates paid on interest-bearing liabilities and subsequently affect the Group's results. For instance, a 200 basis points increase in the interest rate would have increased the Group's net interest income for the year ended 31 December 2020 by €160.0 million, whereas a 200 basis points decrease would have decreased the Group's net interest income for the year ended 31 December 2020 by €70.0 million, assuming the maintenance of the size and structure of its balance sheet and assuming that the movements in interest rates occur instantly and equally on all points of the yield curve, with a -1% annual interest rate floor.

The Group's business and performance have been adversely affected by the low interest rate environment in recent years. As of the date of this Prospectus, the interest rate on the deposit facility set by the ECB is -0.50% and the interest rates on the main refinancing operations and marginal lending facility are 0.00% and 0.25%, respectively. In general, quantitative easing has exerted downward pressure on interest rates and yield curves. A continued period of flatter than usual interest rate yield curves and low (or even negative) interest rates could, in particular, have a material adverse effect on the Group's net interest income given the current low yields of its loan and debt securities portfolios.

In addition, changes in the yield of the Group's assets might not be mirrored by changes in the cost of its liabilities. The Group's loan portfolio is primarily linked to the Euro Interbank Offered Rate ("Euribor") while its retail term deposit base cost is not directly linked to the Euribor but to deposit facility market rates and therefore, a further decrease in Euribor might not be offset by a similar fall in the cost of retail term deposits, which would negatively impact the Group's net interest income.

Additionally, the level of, and changes in, interest rates (including the relationship between short-term and long-term rates) can affect the Group's asset management and life savings insurance results and interest payable on debt. In particular, interest rates can affect consumer behaviour (especially in the asset management and life savings insurance businesses), the availability of disposable income for investments in life assurance and other savings products. Asset management and life savings insurance products generated 41.84% of the Group's recurring revenues^{APM} for the nine months ended 30 September 2021 (37.23% and 38.07% for the year ended 31 December 2020 and 2019, respectively).

The Group's insurance business is also exposed to a significant extent to fluctuations in interest rates due to the special characteristics of certain life savings insurance products providing for a guaranteed return.

⁹ See definition, explanation, use, calculation and breakdown of Net interest income over gross income^{APM} which are set out in "Alternative Performance Measures".

If interest rates remain at low levels for prolonged periods, the Group's insurance business might not achieve the returns on investments that are needed to cover the interest payments on fixed-rate products.

The Group is particularly exposed to the creditworthiness of individuals, families and small and medium enterprises ("SMEs")

Net loans and advances to customers^{APM} represented 52.59% of the Group's total assets¹⁰ as of 30 September 2021 (52.98% and 57.59% as of 31 December 2020 and 2019). The Group's gross loans and advances to customers^{APM} primarily consist of mortgage loans to individuals and families to purchase housing (62.48%, 63.58% and 63.18% of the Group's gross loans and advances to customers excluding reverse repurchase agreements^{APM} as of 30 September 2021 and 31 December 2020 and 2019, respectively¹¹) and loans to businesses non-related to the real estate sector (mainly to SMEs) (23.79%, 23.09% and 22.84% of the Group's gross loans and advances to customers excluding reverse repurchase agreements^{APM} as of 30 September 2021 and 31 December 2020 and 2019, respectively¹²).

As a Spanish bank primarily focused on serving individuals, households and SMEs, the Group's business performance is dependent on the economic health and employment status of its customers. According to the National Statistical Institute (Instituto Nacional de Estadística ("INE")), as of 30 September 2021, the Spanish unemployment rate was 14.57%. As of 30 September 2021, the unemployment rates in Aragón and Madrid, the Group's main markets by retail business volume^{APM}, accounting for 44.05% and 17.78% of its total retail business volume^{APM}, respectively, as of 30 September 2021 (43.74% and 17.81%, respectively, as of 31 December 2020), were 8.79% and 11.84%, respectively, which is below the Spanish average (source: INE). However, in some of the Home Markets, such as Badajoz (which represented 3.80% of the Group's retail business volume^{APM} as of 30 September 2021 (3.86% and 3.73% as of 31 December 2020 and 2019, respectively)), the unemployment rate was 18.19% as of that date, which is above the Spanish average (source: INE). High levels of unemployment have historically resulted in lower demand for new mortgage loans, lower deposit levels, reduced or deferred levels of consumer spending and an increase in customer loan arrears, forbearance, impairment provisions and defaults. The COVID-19 pandemic has caused Spanish unemployment levels to remain high relative to other European countries as well as an increase in the level of indebtedness of the Group's clients which may make them unable to discharge their payment obligations when due, all of which may adversely affect the Group's results.

Indebted and over-indebted families and SMEs are more sensitive to a downturn in the economy and are more likely to have difficulties in meeting their debt obligations as they fall due, which could have a negative effect on the Group's income and also limit its ability to increase its customer base due to the significant portion of individuals and SMEs failing to comply with its credit rating levels.

The availability of complete and accurate financial information, as well as general credit information, on the basis of which the Group can make decisions concerning loans, is more limited with regard to SMEs than with regard to large-scale corporate customers, and even more limited in the case of individual customers. As a result, it is possible to make mistakes when assessing the creditworthiness of these borrowers.

As part of its strategy, the Group intends to increase the amount of credit that grants to SMEs, whose risk profile is higher than that of retail borrowers of mortgage loans. The economic recovery experienced before the COVID-19 pandemic led most of Spanish financial entities to also focus on increasing the flow of credit in the SME sector, thereby creating more competition.

As a result of these factors, it might be difficult for the Group to identify suitable customers to whom it can lend, which could in turn decrease the Group's base of loans or increase its credit risk exposure. If the Group is unable to adequately evaluate prospective customers through the application or use of its credit risk evaluation models, the Group could suffer losses, which could have a material adverse effect on its business, financial situation, results of operations and prospects.

The Group is vulnerable to adverse developments in the Spanish real estate market

A significant portion of the Group's business is connected to the Spanish real estate market. On the one hand, the Group's business is exposed to direct risk in connection with net loans for real estate construction and development and net value of foreclosed assets^{APM} amounted to €1,240,637 as of 30 September 2021 (€1,230,543 and €1,407,673 as of 31 December 2020 and 2019, respectively).

On the other hand, the Group is exposed to indirect risk related to retail mortgage loans which are one of its main asset classes and amounted to €18,054,154¹³ as of 30 September 2021 (€18,614,980 and €19,127,294 as of 31 December 2020 and 2019, respectively).

As of 30 September 2021, the Group's mortgage loans for real estate construction and development amounted to €989,024¹³ (€942,023 and €1,081,306 as of 31 December 2020 and 2019, respectively) and its other real estate secured loans to businesses amounted to €1,298,671¹⁴ (€1,427,686 and €1,721,730 as of 31 December 2020 and 2019, respectively). As of 30 September 2021, the Group's loan to value ratio (LTV ratio^{APM}) of its mortgage loans was 50.38% (51.14% and 51.82% as of 31 December 2020 and 2019, respectively).

As a result, Spanish real estate assets secure many of the Group's outstanding loans. Additionally, the Group holds Spanish real estate assets on its balance sheet, including real estate received in lieu of payment for certain underlying loans. In addition, the Group has restructured and extended the maturity of certain of the loans it has made relating to the acquisition or development of real estate assets, and the capacity of such borrowers to repay such restructured loans may be materially adversely affected by declining real estate prices. Although during 2021 the demand for housing and related real estate loans has increased compared with 2020, any decrease in prices of real estate assets in Spain would reduce the value of the collateral securing the Group's mortgage loans and the credit quality of real estate related financings. The value of the related collateral may fall below the original appraised value and, as a result, in default scenarios, the Group could incur higher losses than it would not have otherwise expected. As a result, a deterioration of Spanish real estate prices could have a material adverse effect on its business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects. Additionally, the Group may not be able to enforce collateral assets due to factors such as inadequate documentation, legal uncertainty, unfavourable regulatory or case law developments or customer fraud.

A decline in real estate prices or business would also reduce the Group's capacity to grow its real estate development and construction loan portfolio and, consequently, its business opportunities in retail mortgage financing arising from the subrogation by retail customers on the loans to real estate developers and constructors.

The impact of the COVID-19 pandemic in the real estate sector was significant, primarily during the first half of 2020, with new construction decreasing by 19.5%, real estate assets acquisitions decreasing by 14.5% in 2020 compared to the previous year (although they recovered after the limitations on mobility were removed) and a minimal drop in asset value (1.1% in 2020) (source: Spanish Ministry of Transport, Mobility and Urban Agenda (Ministerio de Transportes, Movilidad y Agenda Urbana)). Although these indicators have experienced a swift recovery since the second half of 2020 through the first nine months of 2021, a new outbreak of the COVID-19 pandemic could result in a deterioration of the performance of the Spanish real estate sector.

The Group is exposed to market risk associated with fluctuations in debt securities and equity instruments prices and other market factors

All of the Group's businesses are exposed to market risk as a consequence of its trading activities in financial markets and through the asset and liability management of its overall financial position, including its trading portfolio and other equity investments. Therefore, the Group is exposed to losses arising from adverse movements in levels and volatility of interest rates, foreign exchange rates, and commodity and equity prices.

As of 30 September 2021, the total exposure of the Group's fixed income and equity instruments portfolio^{APM} was €17,588,691 thousand (€16,464,946 thousand and €15,787,100 thousand as of 31 December 2020 and 2019, respectively), which represented 30.24% of its total assets (28.19% and 28.49% as of 31 December 2020 and 2019, respectively)¹⁵. The exposure of the Group's ALCO portfolio amounted to €9,697,740 thousand as of 30 September 2021 (€8,439,326 thousand and €7,724,942 thousand as of 31 December 2020 and 2019, respectively) and its exposure to the insurance business fixed income portfolio amounted to €5,835,725 thousand as of 30 September 2021 (€6,701,773 thousand and €7,202,960 thousand as of 31 December 2020 and 2019, respectively)¹⁶.

The performance of financial markets generally may cause changes in the value of the Group's investments, assets held for sale and trading portfolios. The volatility of global capital markets due to recent economic and political uncertainty may affect the value of the Group's investments and, depending on their fair value and future recovery expectations, could result in a permanent impairment, which would be subject to write-offs against the Group's results and cause volatility in capital ratios. In particular, the global spread of the COVID-19 pandemic had a significant impact on financial markets, especially in the second quarter of 2020, following the announcement of tightening lock-down measures affecting most of the world's economies. In the second half of 2020 market conditions started to normalize and volatility decreased in most markets.

Adverse market movements, particularly asset price declines, can reduce the volume of activity in the market or reduce market liquidity. As a result, the Group can be exposed to material losses if it is unable to close out deteriorating positions on satisfactory terms or in a timely manner, particularly in less liquid markets. The volatile nature of the financial markets could result in unforeseen losses for the Group.

Furthermore, fluctuations in financial markets affect consumer behaviour, thereby specifically and negatively affecting the Group's commission- and fee-based businesses (asset management and life savings insurance businesses). Net fee income and exchange differences^{APM} represented 46.15% of the Group's recurring revenues^{APM} for the nine-months ended 30 September 2021 (41.27% and 41.91% for the year ended 31 December 2020 and 2019, respectively). The demand for products benchmarked to fixed income securities, such as pension funds that typically invest in this type of assets, may decrease if equity capital markets perform favourably and may increase when equity capital markets are weaker. Demand for products benchmarked to equity securities, such as mutual funds that typically invest in this type of assets, may increase when equity markets perform favourably, and usually decrease when markets show a downward trend.

A market downturn or an increase in competition in the future could also cause a decrease in the number of transactions carried out on behalf of the Group's customers and, as a consequence, a decrease in its income from commissions. In addition, because the fees that the Group charges for managing its clients' portfolios are, in many cases, based on the value and performance of those portfolios, a reduction in such value and an increased amount of withdrawals, could reduce its revenues from its asset management business.

The Group is subject to sovereign risk

As of 30 September 2021, the gross carrying value of the Group's total exposure to sovereign debt amounted to €14,768,502¹⁷ thousand (€12,298,909 thousand and €11,843,970 thousand as of 31 December 2020 and 2019, respectively), which represented 25.4% of its total assets as of 30 September 2021 (21.1% and 21.4% as of 31 December 2020 and 2019, respectively). Of the Group's total sovereign exposure as of 30 September 2021, 70.5% was held by Ibercaja Banco (59.9% and 55.2% as of 31 December 2020 and 2019, respectively) and 29.3% was held by Ibercaja Vida (39.8% and 44.4% as of 31 December 2020 and 2019, respectively).

As of 30 September 2021, the Group's total exposure to sovereign debt included €10,324,271¹⁷ thousand of "Financial assets at amortized cost" (€7,453,249 thousand and €6,113,082 thousand as of 31 December 2020 and 2019, respectively), €4,437,695¹⁷ thousand of "Financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income" (€4,838,244 thousand and €5,723,384 thousand as of 31 December 2020 and 2019, respectively) and €6,536¹⁷ thousand of "Financial assets at fair value through profit and loss" (€7,416 thousand and €7,504 thousand as of 31 December 2020 and 2019, respectively).

Based on geographic markets, Spain accounted for 92.7% of the Group's total sovereign exposure as of 30 September 2021 (90.7% and 90.6% as of 31 December 2020 and 2019, respectively) and Italy accounted for 5.9% of its total sovereign exposure as of 30 September 2021 (8.3% and 8.7% as of 31 December 2020 and 2019, respectively). The remaining geographic markets accounted for less than 2% as of all relevant dates.

Therefore, any decline in Spain's credit ratings could adversely affect the value of these and other securities the Group holds in its various portfolios. It could also adversely impact the extent to which the Group can use Spanish government bonds it holds as collateral for the ECB refinancing and, indirectly, the extent to which other securities held could be used for such same purpose, which would adversely affect its cost of funding and its ability to access funds, raise capital and meet minimum regulatory capital requirements and adversely affect its interest margins. Furthermore, any downgrades of Spain's credit ratings may increase the risk of a downgrade of the Group's own credit ratings by the rating agencies, which could have similar effects. As such, a downgrade or series of downgrades in the sovereign rating of Spain or the Group's own credit rating or a perceived increase in risk and any resulting reduction in the value of Spanish government bonds may have a material adverse effect on its business, results of operations, financial condition and prospects.

Funding and liquidity risk are inherent in the Group's operations

Liquidity risk comprises uncertainties in relation to the Group's ability, under adverse conditions, to timely access funding necessary to cover its obligations to customers, to meet the maturity of its liabilities as they become due and to satisfy its liquidity requirements. It includes both the risk of unexpected increases in the Group's cost of funding and the risk of not being able to structure the maturity dates of its liabilities reasonably in line with its assets.

The Group's main source of liquidity and funding is its customer deposit base, as well as funds derived from the access to wholesale lending markets, including interbank deposits and covered bonds. The Group's ability to obtain funds or to access them could be harmed by factors that are intrinsic to its operations, such as a decline in its performance, credit rating or creditworthiness, or extrinsic to the Group, such as general macroeconomic and market conditions, including, any major turbulence or closure in the financial markets, a negative view of the perspectives of the sectors that predominate in its lending business (particularly, real estate, consumer and public sectors) or uncertainty as to the availability of funds to market participants in general or their ability or perceived ability to discharge their liabilities as they fall due. These factors could generate a negative perception of the Group's liquidity among creditors and result in a decrease in credit ratings, higher funding costs and a reduction in its ability to access funds or result in its inability to continue to operate without additional funding support, which may be unavailable to the Group. The Group's financial position could be adversely affected if access to liquidity and funding is limited or becomes more expensive for a prolonged period of time.

Retail deposits^{APM}, the Group's main source of liquidity and funding, accounted for 77.96% of its external funding^{APM} as of 30 September 2021 (78.36% and 76.77% as of 31 December 2020 and 2019, respectively). As a result of the short-term nature of part of this source of financing, the Group could suffer from liquidity problems if deposits do not reach the expected volumes or are not renewed because a significant number of depositors withdraw their deposits or do not reinvest their deposits at the end of their term. Large denomination term deposits may, under some circumstances, such as during periods of significant interest rate-based competition for these types of deposits, be a less stable source of deposits than savings and demand deposits. The Group's level of retail deposits^{APM} may fluctuate due to factors outside its control, such as loss of public confidence (including as a result of political initiatives, such as bail-in and/or the confiscation and/or taxation of creditors' funds) or competition from investment funds and other new players in the banking business or other products (see "Increased competition in the markets where the Group operates may adversely affect the Group's growth prospects and operations"), which could result in a significant outflow of deposits within a short period of time. In the event of a sudden or unexpected withdrawal of deposits or shortage of funds in the banking systems or money markets in which the Group operates, the Group might not be able to maintain its current levels of funding without incurring higher funding costs or having to liquidate certain of its assets. If any of these factors were to occur, the Group's net interest income would be reduced, and its interest margins adversely affected.

Financing from wholesale lending markets amounted to €10,176,365 thousand, representing 22.04% of the Group's external funding^{APM} as of 30 September 2021 (€9,985,634 thousand and €9,915,818 thousand representing 21.64% and 23.23% of its external funding^{APM} as of 31 December 2020 and 2019, respectively). In the event such funding were to no longer be available or become too expensive, the Group could be forced to raise interest rates paid on deposits to attract more customers and/or sell its assets at or below their expected price. The persistence or worsening of adverse market conditions or rising interest rates could have a material adverse effect on its ability to access liquidity and negatively impact its financing costs (either directly or indirectly).

The Group's financing capacity also depends on its credit rating. As of the date of this Prospectus, the Group's ratings and outlooks are as follows:

Agency ⁽¹⁾	Long-term	Short-term	Outlook	Date of latest rating
Moody's	Ba1	NP	Stable	1 October 2021
S&P	BB+	B	Stable	24 June 2021
Fitch	BB+	B	Positive	9 September 2021

Notes:—

- (1) Each of Moody's Investors Service España, S.A. ("Moody's"), S&P Global Ratings Europe Limited ("S&P") and Fitch Ratings Ireland Limited ("Fitch") is registered under Regulation (EC) No 1060/2009 (as amended) on credit rating agencies ("CRA Regulation"). As such, each of Moody's, S&P and Fitch is included in the latest update of the list of registered credit rating agencies (as of 7 May 2021) on the ESMA website in accordance with the CRA Regulation.

Any downgrade in the Group's ratings could limit its access to capital markets, reduce its prospective investor base, increase its borrowing costs and adversely affect its interest margins, require the Group to post additional collateral or take other actions under some of its derivative contracts, any of which would materially adversely affect its business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

Additionally, corporate and institutional counterparties may seek to reduce aggregate credit exposures to the Group (or to all banks), which would increase its cost of funding and restrict its access to liquidity.

On 6 June 2019 the ECB announced a new program of targeted long-term refinancing operations ("TLTRO III"). In April 2020, the Governing Council of the ECB made a number of amendments to the TLTRO III to support the provision of credit to households and business to mitigate the economic effects of the COVID-19 pandemic. The Governing Council of the ECB adopted, in December 2020, additional monetary policy measures aiming to contribute to preserve the favourable financing conditions over the pandemic period and, as part of these measures, decided to further recalibrate the conditions of the TLTRO III (in particular, it decided to extend the period over which considerable more favourable terms would apply to June 2022, that three additional operations would be conducted between June and December 2021 and to raise the total amount that Eurosystem counterparties would be entitled to borrow in TLTROs-III from 50% to 55% of their stock of eligible loans). The aforementioned measures were introduced by way of the adoption of ECB Decision ECB 2021/21 of 30 April 2021. As of 30 September 2021, financing from the ECB, all of it which was obtained in the context of TLTRO III and maturing in 2023, amounted to €5,959,000 thousand (of which €5,400,000 thousand was tendered in June 2020 and €459,000 was tendered in March 2021) and represented 10.25% of the Group's total assets at such date. It is not possible to predict the term or the quantum of these extraordinary liquidity support programs in the future, or whether they will be implemented at all. As a result, the Group may need to seek alternative sources of funding, which may be difficult to obtain or may only be available to it at a higher cost.

As of 30 September 2021, the Group had liquid assets^{APM} amounting to €14,253,871 thousand (€14,959,441 thousand and € 11,467,882 thousand as of 31 December 2020 and 2019, respectively), substantially all of which was eligible to be used as collateral to obtain ECB funding. In addition, as of such date, the Group had an additional legal issuance capacity¹⁸ of €8,843,544 thousand (€8,379,866 thousand and €7,307,407 thousand as of 31 December 2020 and 2019, respectively), so its available liquidity position^{APM} was €23,097,415 thousand (€23,339,307 thousand and €18,775,289 thousand as of 31 December 2020 and 2019, respectively). Any changes to the policies and requirements for accessing funding from the ECB, including any changes to the criteria for identifying the asset types admitted as collateral or their relative valuations, could have a material adverse effect on the Group's liquidity and cost of funding.

The factors described above may also have a material adverse effect on the Group's regulatory position, including its ability to meet its regulatory minimum liquidity requirements. As of 30 September 2021, the Group's liquidity coverage ratio ("LCR") was 443.1% (excluding Ibercaja Vida) (468.1% and 307.1% as of 31 December 2020 and 2019, respectively) and its net stable funding ratio ("NSFR") (excluding Ibercaja Vida) was 150.5% (151.5% and 131.4% as of 31 December 2020 and 2019, respectively), both above their respective minimum requirement of 100%. However, there can be no assurance that the Group will be able to maintain its ratios in excess of regulatory requirements in the future. See "Capital, liquidity and funding requirements and loss absorbing powers—Liquidity requirements" for a further description of these liquidity and funding ratios.

The Group's insurance business is exposed to actuarial risk

The Group's insurance business, which is carried out through its subsidiaries, Ibercaja Vida and Ibercaja Mediación de Seguros, S.A.U. ("Ibercaja Mediación"), is significant to its overall business. Life savings insurance products represented 5.35% of the Group's recurring revenues^{APM} in the nine months ended 30 September 2021 (6.18% and 6.66% in the years ended 31 December 2020 and 2019, respectively) and risk insurance products (which include life risk and non-life risk insurance products) represented 10.47% of its recurring revenues^{APM} in the nine months ended 30 September 2021 (9.97% and 9.66% in the years ended 31 December 2020 and 2019, respectively).

Actuarial risk reflects the risk arising from the execution of life and other insurance contracts, considering events covered and the processes used in the conduct of business, and any risks related to it, including longevity risk (risk related to an increase in the survival of insured parties compared to forecasts), policy lapse risk (risk related to variations in surrender rates compared to forecasts) and mortality risk (risk related to an increase in the mortality rates compared to forecasts). The management of these risks depends on actuarial management policies relating to subscription and pricing rates.

The Group's business requires using models, assumptions and estimates, which present the risk of reality not matching the assumptions initially used to assess or predict future events. Reserves are calculated based on the assumption that the factors applied will be sufficient to cover the claims and expense rates in all current contracts until their expiry date.

Similarly, claims reserves are calculated by estimating the final cost of any claims, and life insurance technical reserves are calculated on the basis of estimates related to, among others, mortality, longevity, expenses and lapses. These estimates and assumptions are based on actuarial and statistical studies based on the facts and circumstances known at a specific time, but performance may depend on many different factors and may be affected by changes in applicable laws or in the general economic scenario. Actual future events may differ from the Group's estimates, which could have a material adverse effect on its business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

In addition, the Group's insurance subsidiaries regularly enter into contracts with reinsurance companies not belonging to the Group in order to control their risk exposure. Market conditions beyond the Group's control determine the availability and cost of the reinsurance protection the Group purchased. Accordingly, the Group's insurance subsidiaries may be forced to incur additional expenses for reinsurance or may not be able to obtain sufficient reinsurance on acceptable terms, which could have a material adverse effect on its business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

The Group's businesses are heavily exposed to operational risks

The Group's businesses depend on its ability to process a large number of transactions efficiently and accurately on a daily basis and to manage personal financial information on behalf of its customers. The operational risks to which the Group is exposed include, among others, those deriving from processing errors, system failures, internal and external fraud, compliance risks, low productivity and the inadequate training or qualifications of staff, deficient customer service, external system failures (such as administrative or accounting mistakes, errors in the computer or communication systems or IT security breaches) as well as external events that could undermine its operations or its image. Given the large number of transactions that we carry out on a daily basis, such mistakes could be made repeatedly before they are discovered and remedied. As of 31 December 2020, the losses associated to the Group's operational risk amounted to €6,936 thousand (€5,729 thousand as of 31 December 2019).

As of 30 September 2021, the own funds requirements associated to the Group's operational risks amounted to € 108,314¹⁹ thousand (€108,314 thousand and €110,077 thousand as of 31 December 2020 and 2019, respectively).

Any failure causing an interruption of the Group's service or that slows down its response capacity could adversely affect the Group's customers' ability to use its systems, as well as damage its reputation, business and brand. The Group could be subject to claims filed by its customers aimed at recovering losses they might have suffered as a result of any of the aforementioned events or be subject to penalties and disciplinary sanctions, in the event of any delay or omission by it in the processing and registration of transactions, or any breach in internal control. As a result, the Group could suffer financial damage or harm to its reputation, which could in turn have a negative effect on its business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

In particular, the Group's technological infrastructure is critical to the operation of its business and the delivery of products and services to clients. The Group's information technology ("IT") systems are vulnerable to a series of problems, such as the malfunctioning of hardware and software, computer virus, hacking, phishing or similar attacks and cyber-attacks. In particular, the risks associated with cyber-attacks are a material risk to the Group and the Spanish financial system as a whole, which has a high degree of interconnectedness between market participants, centralised market infrastructure and in some cases complex legacy IT systems. Cyber-attacks could give rise to the loss of significant amounts of customer data and other sensitive information, as well as significant levels of liquid assets (including cash). These threats are increasingly sophisticated and any absence of or failure of existing controls could result in significant financial losses and a material adverse effect on the Group's operational performance and reputation. As attempted attacks continue to evolve in scope and sophistication, the Group may incur significant costs in order to modify or enhance its protective measures against such attacks, or to investigate or remediate any vulnerability or resulting breach, or in communicating cyber-attacks to its customers or other affected individuals. Any external attack aiming to circumvent the Group's security measures could result in the unlawful use of its and its customers' confidential information, which could expose the Group to the risk of losses, disciplinary measures from regulatory authorities, lawsuits and harm to its reputation.

Furthermore, the Group's technology and operations depend on a number of specialised technology and service providers. If any of the Group's key technological and service providers fails to perform its services effectively or not in accordance with the terms of the relevant service agreements with the Group, this could lead to interruptions in its business operations, services offered or information provided to its customers or may have a material adverse effect on the availability of its banking services, including the Group's online services and on the productivity of its employees.

Finally, the Group manages and uses confidential information from customers when processing banking transactions. Any unlawful or unauthorised disclosure may trigger legal actions and administrative fines together with damages and could result in reputational damage, any of which could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

Increased competition in the markets where the Group operates may adversely affect its growth prospects and operations

The markets in which the Group operates are highly competitive. Financial sector reforms in these markets (mainly in Spain) have increased competition among both local and foreign financial institutions, and the Group believes that this trend will continue in the future. In addition, the banking sector has experienced in the last few years a trend towards consolidation which has been accelerated by the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic (especially in Spain, where four of the 12 most significant financial institutions in terms of asset volume in the sector have merged recently. In particular, Bankia, S.A. and Liberbank, S.A. have merged with and into CaixaBank, S.A. and Unicaja Banco, S.A., respectively, creating larger and stronger banks with which the Group must now compete. It cannot be ruled out that more consolidation transactions are executed in the financial sector in the coming months or years.

The Group also faces competition from non-bank competitors, such as department stores (for some credit products), automotive finance corporations, leasing companies, factoring companies, mutual funds, pension funds and insurance companies. In addition, the Group faces increasing competition from shadow banking entities that operate outside the regulated banking system. Furthermore, “crowdfunding” and other social media developments in finance are expected to become more popular as technology becomes a key driver of the banking sector. In particular, non-traditional providers of banking services, such as internet-based e-commerce providers, mobile telephone companies, social media companies, FinTech’s, digital banks and internet search engines may start to offer or increase their existing offerings of financial products and services directly to customers. In July 2018, the EBA published a report on the impact of FinTech’s on the banking sector identifying the main factors related to FinTech’s companies that could significantly affect the sustainability of the credit institutions’ business model which included, among others, a more digital and innovative strategy, their operational capacity to implement changes and their capacity to attract and retain staff. These providers may be able to innovate more quickly than the Group can, as they are not constrained by any legacy IT systems and face fewer regulatory requirements and lower fixed costs than the Group. The ongoing FinTech’s development has resulted in increasing competition within the financial services sector, not only direct competition with the FinTech’s firms but also among the traditional providers of banking services, who are competing in terms of technological development to achieve the first-mover advantage.

In its asset management business, the Group faces competition from exchange-traded funds (ETFs) and other investment products, which may negatively impact the margin from its asset management products.

If the Group is unable to successfully compete with current and new competitors, or if it is unable to anticipate and adapt its offerings to changing banking industry trends, including technological changes, this could have a material adverse effect on its business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

The Group is subject to conduct and reputational risks that could result in fines, sanctions and reputational damage

Reputational risk is a particular concern for companies operating in the financial sector (including the Group), where participants need to maintain the confidence of customers, investors, regulators, creditors and financial markets generally. The Group is subject to the risk that inappropriate execution of its business activities causes harm to its customers or counterparties or to the Group and its employees, third-party service providers and external staff. In addition, the Group is subject to reputational risk to its brands arising from any inappropriate actions by the Group or its employees, customers or counterparties (including breaches of laws, regulations and internal policies, money laundering, terrorism financing and tax evasion), or by any association, action or inaction that is perceived by stakeholders to be inappropriate, unethical or not sustainable.

In particular, the Group is required to comply with applicable anti-money laundering (“AML”), anti-terrorism, anti-bribery and corruption, sanctions and other laws and regulations applicable to it. AML, antiterrorism, anti-bribery and corruption and sanctions laws and regulations are increasingly complex and detailed. Compliance with these laws and regulations requires automated systems, sophisticated monitoring and skilled compliance personnel, which puts a significant burden on banks and other financial institutions. The reputational damage to its business would be severe if the Group was found to have breached AML, anti-terrorism, anti-bribery and corruption or sanctions requirements. The Group’s reputation could also suffer if it is unable to protect its customers’ products and services from being used by criminals for illegal or improper purposes.

Failure to appropriately manage conduct and reputation risks may reduce the Group's attractiveness to stakeholders, including customers, and may lead to negative publicity, loss of revenue, litigation (including class actions), increased regulatory scrutiny and sanctions, reduced workforce morale, and difficulties in recruiting and retaining talent. Any event arising from conduct or reputation risks could cause damage to its business, regardless of whether the negative publicity is factually accurate. The Group's reputation may also suffer by association with fraudulent or criminal acts committed by customers or by employees for activities unrelated to their position with it.

The occurrence of any of these events may cause customers, investors, creditors and financial markets generally to lose confidence in the Group and materially and adversely affect its business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

Legal, regulatory and compliance risks

The Group is subject to substantial regulation and regulatory and governmental oversight which imposes significant costs on the Group and drives how the Group conducts its business

The financial services industry is among the most regulated industries in the world. The Group's operations are subject to substantial regulation that it may be unable to comply with, including as a result of changes in laws, regulations, guidelines, policies and interpretations, as well as judicial interpretations of new laws and regulations, in Spain and the EU. In addition, regulatory scrutiny under existing laws and regulations has become more stringent. This is particularly the case in the current market environment, which is witnessing increased levels of government and regulatory intervention in the banking sector, and which is expected to continue for the foreseeable future. This creates significant uncertainty for the Group and the financial industry in general.

The wide range of actions or regulatory proposals adopted during the last few years include, among other things, provisions for more stringent regulatory capital and liquidity standards (which could require the Group to maintain a greater proportion of its assets in highly-liquid but lower-yielding financial instruments, negatively affecting its net interest margin^{APM}) (see "Increasingly onerous capital requirements constitute one of the Group's main regulatory challenges"), restrictions on compensation practices, special bank levies and financial transaction taxes, recovery and resolution powers to intervene in a crisis including "bail-in" of creditors, separation of certain businesses from deposit taking, stress testing and capital planning regimes, heightened reporting requirements and reforms of derivatives, other financial instruments, investment products and market infrastructures. As a result, the Group may be subject to an increasing number of liability or regulatory sanctions and may be required to make greater expenditures and devote additional resources to address potential liability.

In addition, the Group is subject to rules and regulations regarding money laundering, corruption and the financing of terrorism which have become increasingly complex and detailed and the subject of enhanced government supervision, requiring the Group to use improved systems and implement sophisticated monitoring mechanisms and compliance personnel. Any failure of the Group's personnel to comply with such policies or applicable rules and regulations, may have severe consequences, including sanctions, fines and adverse reputational consequences, which would have a material adverse effect on its business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

Regulatory authorities have substantial discretion in how to regulate banks, and this discretion, and the means available to the regulators, have been steadily increasing during recent years. Regulation may be imposed on an ad hoc basis by governments and regulators in response to a crisis, and these may especially affect financial institutions like the Group.

The Group is subject to the supervision and/or regulation of the Bank of Spain, the ECB (which supervises the Group directly under the Single Supervisory Mechanism (“SSM”) in which the Bank of Spain participates), the Single Resolution Board (the “SRB”), the Spanish Executive Resolution Authority (the “FROB”, Fondo Ordenado de Resolución Bancaria), the CNMV and the Directorate General of Insurance and Pension Funds (Dirección General de Seguros y Fondos de Pensiones) which are the main regulators of the Group’s operations. In addition, many of the Group’s operations are dependent upon licenses issued by financial authorities.

These regulators, as part of their supervisory function, periodically review the internal processes and controls related to all areas of the Group’s business including the granting of credit and classification of risks, its corporate governance and risk management, its technological security, its allowances for loan losses and compliance with rules of conduct in the marketing of financial products to its customers and may require the Group to change its business, marketing, governance and risk practices and procedures, to increase such allowances, to recognise further losses or to increase the regulatory risk-weighting of assets, or may increase its capital requirements. Any such measures, as required by these regulators, whose views may differ from those of its management, could have an adverse effect on the Group’s business and financial condition, including on its common equity tier 1 (“CET1”) ratio and on its ability to pay distributions.

Any required changes to the Group’s business operations resulting from the legislation and regulations applicable to its business or from the supervisory function of its regulators could result in a significant loss of revenue or reduced profitability, require significant management attention and resources, limit its ability to pursue business opportunities, adversely affect the value of its assets or require the Group to increase its prices or incur in additional costs (including increased compliance costs) any of which would materially adversely affect its business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

Increasingly onerous capital requirements constitute one of the Group’s main regulatory challenges

Solvency risk is the risk related to the failure to maintain sufficient resources to absorb losses through a full economic cycle, meet solvency regulatory and prudential requirements or maintain sufficient resources to maintain the confidence of current and prospective investors.

As a Spanish credit institution, the Group is subject to the capital requirements and to the minimum requirements for own funds and eligible liabilities (“MREL”) set by the ECB. On 8 April 2020, the ECB notified the Group of its decision to modify the prudential requirements established as part of the SREP of 25 November 2019, which are still in place for 2021. As a result, as of the date of this Prospectus the Group must maintain a CET1 ratio of 8.125% and a total capital ratio of 12.50%. These capital requirements include the minimum capital requirement for Pillar 1 (4.5% CET 1 and 8% of total capital), Pillar 2 (1.125% for CET1 and 2% for total capital) and the capital conservation buffer (2.5%). As of 30 September 2021, the Group had a total capital ratio of 18.3% and a CET1 phased-in ratio of 13.6%. In addition, in March, 2021, the Group received a formal communication from the Bank of Spain regarding the MREL requirement, as determined by the SRB, upon which the Group has been required to reach an amount of own funds and eligible liabilities on a consolidated basis equal to 15.38% of RWAs and 5.24% in terms of MREL leverage ratio by 1 January 2022. This requirement would be equal to 18.42% of the Group’s consolidated RWAs as of 1 January 2024 (5.24% in terms of MREL leverage ratio). As of 30 June 2021, the Group had a MREL position of 18.13% in terms of RWAs (including the CET1 dedicated to comply with the combined buffer requirement) and 7.08% in terms of MREL leverage ratio²⁰, both of which are above the requirements for 2022. The Group estimates its MREL issuance needs towards the requirement for 2024, as of the date of this Prospectus, amount to approximately €0.7-0.8 billion. See “Capital, liquidity and funding requirements and loss absorbing powers—MREL requirements”.

Additional and more demanding capital requirements may be applied in the future. The implementation of existing or new capital requirements, standards or recommendations may negatively affect the Group’s return on equity and other financial performance indicators or require the Group to issue additional securities that qualify as regulatory capital or eligible liabilities for purposes of the MREL requirement (this requirement to issue additional securities may, in addition, impair the Group’s ability to manage its funding and capital resources in the most efficient way), to liquidate assets, to curtail business or to take any other actions, any of which may materially adversely affect the Group’s business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

Failure to comply with existing or future capital requirements may also adversely affect the Group’s ability to make (i) distributions relating to CET1 capital, (ii) payments in respect of variable remuneration or discretionary pension revenues and (iii) distributions relating to additional tier 1 (“AT1”) capital instruments (“Discretionary Payments”). As of the date of this Prospectus, the Group is not required to calculate a Maximum Distributable Amount (as defined below). Based on the most recent SREP carried out by the ECB in 2020, if the Group’s CET1 phased-in ratio fell below 8.125% or its total capital ratio phased-in fell below 12.50% in 2021, the Group would be required to calculate its Maximum Distributable Amount, and the Group may be required to reduce its Discretionary Payments.

In addition, debt and equity investors, analysts and other market professionals may also require higher capital buffers than those required under current or proposed future regulations due to, among other things, the continued general uncertainty involving the financial services industry and the uncertain global economic conditions. Any such market perception, or any concern regarding compliance with future capital adequacy requirements, could increase the Group’s borrowing costs, limit its access to capital markets or result in a downgrade in its credit ratings, which could have a material adverse effect on its business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

The Group is exposed to losses as a result of legal and regulatory claims relating to floor clauses in mortgage agreements with consumers

The Group is involved in certain actions relating to the application of “floor clauses” (clauses that set minimum interest rates payable by borrowers, whereby the borrower agrees to pay a minimum interest rate to the lender regardless of the applicable benchmark rate) in mortgage agreements acquired from Banco Grupo Cajatrés, S.A.U. (“Banco Caja3”).

The Group has entered into negotiated settlements with certain of the borrowers under the portfolio of mortgage loans containing floor clauses that it acquired from Banco Caja3. As part of these negotiated settlements, the Group offered its customers to sign an amendment agreement to the original mortgage agreement whereby the Group would reduce or remove the floor clause and the customer would undertake not to bring a claim against it in the future. Out of the 39,674 mortgage loan agreements containing floor clauses, the Group signed 17,984 amendment agreements in accordance with such terms representing 45% of the total mortgage loan agreements containing floor clauses.

As of 30 September 2021, €978 million (16,796 mortgage loans), out of the approximately €1,056 million of outstanding principal amount of 19,543 mortgage loans containing floor clauses, corresponded to mortgage loans amended in negotiated settlements and €78 million (2,747 mortgage loans) corresponded to mortgage loans containing floor clauses which have not been claimed by customers or subject to negotiated settlements but which were still claimable as of such date. The Spanish Supreme Court declared in its ruling dated 11 April 2018 the validity of the floor clauses contained in the amendment agreements signed between the Group and its customers in the negotiated settlements, and the lower Spanish courts are applying the Spanish Supreme Court's criteria. However, on 26 June 2018, the Court of First Instance and Investigation (Juzgado de Primera Instancia e Instrucción) No 3 in Teruel requested from the Court of Justice of the European Union ("CJEU") a preliminary ruling based on the apparent conflict between the Spanish Supreme Court's ruling upholding the validity of these amendment agreements and EU law on unfair terms in consumer contracts.

On 9 July 2020, the CJEU ruled on this matter stating that (i) amendment agreements in relation to potential abusive clauses as the ones reached by the Group do not breach Council Directive 93/13/EEC of 5 April 1993 on unfair terms in consumer contracts ("Directive 93/13"), provided that the consumer has consented to it freely and has been duly informed, (ii) national courts would have to determine, on a case-by-case basis, whether the agreement was subject to individual negotiation and, if applicable, whether the transparency requirement was met (i.e. whether the consumer was in a position to understand the economic and legal consequences of the transaction), (iii) national courts would have to determine if such agreement complies with the requirements set out in Directive 93/13, in particular, with the transparency requirements, if the relevant clauses have not been subject to individual negotiation and (iv) the consumer may validly waive the right to have the original floor clause declared unfair, provided that this waiver is made by the consumer with free and informed consent.

On 5 November 2020 the Spanish Supreme Court, despite the fact that in its ruling dated 11 April 2018 it upheld the validity of one of the Group's negotiated settlements, considered that the settlement agreements that the Group had reached with its customers were not individually negotiated and were subject to the transparency test. In this context, on 5 November 2020 the Spanish Supreme Court ruled that an agreement between a lender and a consumer whereby the consumer accepts an amendment to the floor clause and waives his right to claim against the lender is valid provided that the consumer was duly informed about the amendment and that such waiver only covers claims relating to the floor clause (and therefore does not extend to claims other than those relating to the floor clause). As a result, since this resolution from the Spanish Supreme Court, the Group was obliged to reimburse customers with the amounts paid under the rate of the floor clauses from the beginning of the original agreement until the amendment but it was established that the floor clauses which were reduced by virtue of the settlement agreements were valid and in place since the date of the relevant settlement agreement. The Group understands that if this criteria is followed in the future, the decisions in connection with the outstanding claims related to this matter will be partially favourable to the Group, as it has been happening up until the date of this Prospectus. The Spanish Supreme Court's ruling declaring the validity of the floor clauses contained in the amendment agreements signed between the Group and its customers in the negotiated settlements is in line with the CJEU case law.

As of 30 September 2021, the Group's provisions related to this matter amounted to €14.9 million, which cover its estimate of the risk from potential claims arising from non-amended loans and amended loans. The Group considers its provisions to be reasonable taking into consideration the amount of mortgage loans containing floor clauses which have not been claimed by customers or subject to negotiated settlements but which were still claimable as well as the rulings by the CJEU on 9 July 2020 and by the Spanish Supreme Court on 5 November 2020 in respect of mortgage loans containing floor clauses amended in negotiated settlements. However, these estimates may not be complete, may not have factored in all customers or former customers that could potentially file claims, and may not reflect the most recent facts or legal trends adopted by the Spanish courts, or any other circumstances that could be relevant for establishing the impact of these clauses for the Group or the successful outcome of the claims filed in relation to these clauses. Consequently, the provisions made by the Group could prove to be inadequate.

For further information on floor clause litigation and other legal proceedings in which the Group is involved, see “Description of the Issuer—Legal and arbitration proceedings”.

Risk of not recovering certain tax assets

As of 30 September 2021 the Group had deferred tax assets (“DTAs”) amounting to €1,316,173²¹ thousand (€1,335,625 thousand and €1,326,708 thousand as of 31 December 2020 and 2019, respectively), representing 2.3% of its total consolidated assets (2.3% and 2.4% as of 31 December 2020 and 2019, respectively). These assets or tax credits are derived principally from (i) negative taxable base for corporate tax due to losses in a given fiscal year; (ii) certain corporate tax deductions that cannot be applied to a given fiscal year if the corporate income tax (“CIT”) base is negative; and (iii) certain temporary adjustments recognised in a given fiscal year, that are pending to be applied.

The Group’s ability to recover these tax assets in the future is subject to different time limitations depending on the origin of the asset (e.g. no time limitation for negative taxable bases or 15 years for deductions pending application, as provided in Act 27/2014, dated 27 November, on Corporate Income Tax (Ley 27/2014, de 27 de noviembre, del Impuesto sobre Sociedades) (the “CIT Act”), except for deductions for research and development and innovation which may be offset within 18 years). According to the business plan of Ibercaja, which served as the basis for the valuation of these tax assets, the estimated period to recover these tax assets is no longer than 15 years.

Temporary differences are typically recovered following the recovery path foreseen accounting-wise, and there is no time limit to offset negative tax bases and deductions to prevent international double taxation.

Out of the Group’s €1,316²¹ million total DTAs as of 30 September 2021 (€1,336 million and €1,327 million as of 31 December 2020 and 2019, respectively), €423²¹ million as of 30 September 2021, and €433 million and €452 million as of 31 December 2020 and 2019, respectively, are DTAs for tax-loss carryforwards and unused tax credits. The eventual recovery of these tax assets is subject to, or limited by, the occurrence of certain factors, such as obtaining sufficient profits, the non-reduction of the corporate tax rate or the existence of discrepancies with the Spanish tax authorities in the settlement of such tax.

Therefore, in the event that (i) the Group does not generate sufficient profits (or at all) within the applicable time to offset non-monetizable tax credits; (ii) discrepancies are detected in previous tax returns as a consequence of audits undertaken by the Spanish tax authorities resulting in a reduction of its DTAs; or (iii) there are changes in current regulations, or their application or interpretation, the Group could be totally or partially restricted from recovering the amount of its DTAs, which could have a material adverse effect on the Group’s business, results of operations and/or financial condition.

The Spanish tax authorities notified the Group in July 2020 of the commencement of tax audit proceedings in relation to the CIT for 2011 to 2017 (both inclusive) which are still ongoing. The tax inspectors have already requested certain financial information from the Group and as of the date of this Prospectus, no significant discrepancies have been identified.

As of 30 September 2021, the Group had provisions for an amount of €3,935 thousand (€3,935 thousand and €3,935 thousand as of 31 December 2020 and 2019, respectively) in connection with the tax audit proceedings which, taking into consideration the current CIT rate of 30% would represent €13,110 thousand at tax base level. However, these estimates may not be complete, may not reflect all the circumstances that could be relevant for establishing the impact of these tax audit proceedings. Consequently, the provisions made by the Group could prove to be inadequate.

Risks relating to the Notes

The Notes may be subject to the exercise of the Spanish Bail-in Power by the Relevant Resolution Authority. Other powers contained in Law 11/2015 or the SRM Regulation could materially affect the rights of the Holders of the Notes under, and the value of, any Notes

As discussed in “Capital, Liquidity and Funding Requirements and Loss Absorbing Powers—Loss absorbing powers by the Relevant Resolution Authority under Law 11/2015 and the SRM Regulation”, the Notes may be subject to the bail-in tool (the “Spanish Bail-in Power” as defined therein) and in general to the powers that may be exercised by the Relevant Resolution Authority (as defined therein) under Law 11/2015, of 18 June, on the recovery and resolution of credit institutions and investment firms (“Law 11/2015”) and the SRM Regulation. The exercise of any such powers (or any other resolution powers and tools) may result in Holders losing some or all of their investment or otherwise having their rights under the Notes adversely affected and not only the exercise but also any suggestion that such exercise may happen, could materially adversely affect the market price or value or trading behaviour of any Notes and/or the ability of the Bank to satisfy its obligations under any Notes. The Spanish Bail-in Power may also be exercised in such manner as to result in Holders receiving a different security, which may be worth significantly less than the Notes.

There may be limited protections, if any, that will be available to holders of securities subject to the Spanish Bail-in Power (including the Notes) and to the broader resolution powers of the Relevant Resolution Authority. Accordingly, Holders of the Notes may have limited or circumscribed rights to challenge any decision of the Relevant Resolution Authority to exercise its bail-in power. In particular, to the extent that any resulting treatment of a Holder of the Notes pursuant to the exercise of the Spanish Bail-in Power is less favourable than would have been the case in normal insolvency proceedings, a Holder of such affected Notes may have a right to compensation under the BRRD and the SRM Regulation based on an independent valuation of the institution, in accordance with Article 10 of Royal Decree 1012/2015 and the SRM Regulation. Any such compensation, together with any other compensation provided by any Applicable Banking Regulations (including, among other such compensation, in accordance with Article 36.5 of Law 11/2015) is unlikely to compensate that Holder for the losses it has actually incurred and there is likely to be a considerable delay in the recovery of such compensation. Compensation payments (if any) are also likely to be made considerably later than when amounts may otherwise have been due under the affected Notes.

The exercise of the Spanish Bail-in Power by the Relevant Resolution Authority with respect to the Notes is likely to be inherently unpredictable and may depend on a number of factors which may also be outside of the Bank’s control. In addition, as the Relevant Resolution Authority will retain an element of discretion, Holders of the Notes may not be able to refer to publicly available criteria in order to anticipate any potential exercise of any such Spanish Bail-in Power. Because of this inherent uncertainty, it will be difficult to predict when, if at all, the exercise of any such powers by the Relevant Resolution Authority may occur.

Any actions by the Relevant Resolution Authority pursuant to the ones granted by Law 11/2015, or other measures or proposals relating to the resolution of institutions, may adversely affect the rights of Holders of the Notes, the price or value of an investment in the Notes and/or the Bank's ability to satisfy its obligations under the Notes.

The qualification of the Notes as MREL-Eligible Instruments is subject to uncertainty

The Notes are intended to be MREL-Eligible Instruments under the Applicable Banking Regulations. However, there is uncertainty regarding the final substance of the Applicable Banking Regulations on the subject and how those regulations, once enacted, are to be interpreted and applied and the Bank cannot provide any assurance that the Notes will or may be (or thereafter remain) MREL-Eligible Instruments.

The EU Banking Reforms include directives and regulations intended to clarify the requirements for MREL eligibility. The CRD V Directive and BRRD II have been partially implemented into Spanish law through Royal Decree-Law 7/2021, of 27 April, ("RDL 7/2021") which has amended, amongst others, Law 10/2014 and Law 11/2015. Despite the fact that RDL 7/2021 is generally enforceable since 29 April 2021, the Spanish Parliament decided on 19 May 2021 to process it as a Law and so RDL 7/2021 provisions may be subject to changes. Furthermore, Royal Decree 970/2021, of 8 November, generally in force since 10 November 2021, amended Royal Decree 84/2015 to continue the implementation into Spanish law of CRD V Directive but full implementation of CRD V Directive still requires approval of the relevant amendments to other secondary Spanish regulations (i.e. Bank of Spain circulars) and Royal Decree 1041/2021, generally in force since 24 November 2021, amended Royal Decree 1012/2015 and completed the implementation of BRRD II into Spanish law. There is uncertainty how such amendments will affect the Bank or the Holders of the Notes. In addition, there is also uncertainty as to how the EU Banking Reforms will be implemented and applied by the relevant authorities. See "Capital, liquidity and funding requirements and loss absorbing powers".

Because of this uncertainty, the Bank cannot provide any assurance that the Notes will or may ultimately be (or thereafter remain) MREL-Eligible Instruments.

If for any reasons the Notes are not MREL-Eligible Instruments or if they initially are MREL-Eligible Instruments and subsequently become ineligible, then a Disqualification Event will occur, with the consequences indicated in the Conditions. See "—The Notes may be redeemed at the option of the Bank" and "—Substitution and variation of the Notes without Holder consent".

The Notes provide for limited events of default

The Conditions do not provide for any events of default, except in the case that an order is made by any competent court commencing insolvency proceedings against the Bank or for its winding up or dissolution (other than as permitted in Condition 6). Accordingly, in the event that any payment on the Notes is not made when due, each Holder will have a claim only for amounts then due and payable on their Notes but will have no right to accelerate such Notes.

As mentioned above, pursuant to the BRRD, as implemented through Law 11/2015 and Royal Decree 1012/2015, and the SRM Regulation the Bank may be subject to a procedure of early intervention or resolution. Pursuant to Law 11/2015 the adoption of any early intervention or resolution procedure shall not itself constitute an event of default or entitle any counterparty of the Bank to exercise any rights it may otherwise have in respect thereof. Any provision providing for such rights shall further be deemed not to apply, although this does not limit the ability of a counterparty to declare any event of default and exercise its rights accordingly where an event of default arises either before or after the adoption of any such procedure and does not necessarily relate to the exercise of any relevant measure or power which has been applied pursuant to Law 11/2015.

Any attempt by a Holder to enforce its rights under the Notes following the adoption of any early intervention or any resolution procedure will, therefore, be subject to the relevant provisions of the BRRD and Law 11/2015 and Royal Decree 1012/2015 in relation to the exercise of the relevant measures and powers pursuant to such procedure, including the resolution tools and powers referred to above (see “— The Notes may be subject to the exercise of the Spanish Bail-in Power by the Relevant Resolution Authority. Other powers contained in Law 11/2015 or the SRM Regulation could materially affect the rights of the Holders of the Notes under, and the value of, any Notes”).

There can be no assurance that the taking of any such action would not adversely affect the rights of Holders (in particular, any rights a Holder may otherwise have on the occurrence of any such action may be limited in these circumstances), the price or value of their investment in the Notes and/or the ability of the Bank to satisfy its obligations under the Notes.

The Notes may be redeemed at the option of the Bank

All, but not some only of the Notes may be redeemed at the option of the Bank on the Reset Date at their principal amount, together with any accrued and unpaid interest thereon to (but excluding) the date fixed for redemption.

The redemption of the Notes at the option of the Bank is subject to the prior Supervisory Permission (as defined in the Conditions) and compliance with Applicable Banking Regulations then in force. The Regulation (EU) 575/2013, of 26 June, on prudential requirements for credit institutions and investment firms (the “CRR”) provides that the redemption of eligible liabilities instruments prior to the date of their contractual maturity is subject to the prior permission of the resolution authority. According to Article 78a of CRR, such permission will be given only if any of the following conditions is met:

- (i) before or at the same time of such redemption, the institution replaces the eligible liabilities instruments with own funds or eligible liabilities instruments of equal or higher quality at terms that are sustainable for the income capacity of the issuer; or
- (ii) the institution has demonstrated to the satisfaction of the resolution authority that the own funds and eligible liabilities of the institution would, following such redemption, exceed the requirements laid down in the CRR, the CRD IV and the BRRD by a margin that the resolution authority, in agreement with the competent authority, considers necessary; or
- (iii) the institution has demonstrated to the satisfaction of the resolution authority that the partial or full replacement of the eligible liabilities with own funds instruments is necessary to ensure compliance with the own funds requirements laid down in CRR and in CRD IV for continuing authorisation.

The Notes are also redeemable on or after the Issue Date at the option of the Bank in whole but not in part, at any time, at their principal amount, together with any accrued and unpaid interest thereon to (but excluding) the date fixed for redemption (subject to the prior Supervisory Permission and otherwise in accordance with Applicable Banking Regulations then in force) if there is a Disqualification Event or a Tax Event (each as defined in Condition 15 in the Conditions).

It is not possible to predict whether or not any further change in the laws or regulations of Spain, Applicable Banking Regulations or, in the case of a redemption of the Notes for tax reasons, the official application or interpretation thereof, or any of the other events referred to above, will occur and so lead to the circumstances in which the Bank is able to elect to redeem the Notes, and if so whether or not the Bank will elect to exercise such option to redeem the Notes or any prior consent of the Competent Authority required for such redemption will be given. There can be no assurances that, in the event of any such early redemption, Holders will be able to reinvest the proceeds at a rate that is equal to the return on the Notes.

In addition, the redemption feature of the Notes is likely to limit their market value. During any period when the Bank has the right to elect to redeem the Notes or there is a perceived increase in the likelihood that the Bank will exercise the right to elect to redeem the Notes, the market value of the Notes is unlikely to rise substantially above the price at which they can be redeemed. This may also be true prior to such period.

The terms of the Notes contain a waiver of set-off rights

The Conditions provide that Holders waive any set-off, netting or compensation rights against any right, claim, or liability the Bank has, may have or acquire against any Holder, directly or indirectly, howsoever arising, as required under Applicable Banking Regulations. As a result, Holders will not at any time be entitled to set-off the Bank's obligations under the Notes against obligations owed by them to the Bank.

Substitution and variation of the Notes without Holder consent

Subject to Condition 4.6, if a Tax Event or a Disqualification Event occurs, the Bank may, instead of redeeming the Notes, at any time, without the consent of the Holders, and subject to compliance with Applicable Banking Regulations and to the prior Supervisory Permission, either (a) substitute new notes for all (but not some only) the Notes whereby such new notes shall replace the Notes or (b) vary the terms of all (but not some only) the Notes, so that the Notes may become or remain Qualifying Notes (as defined in the Conditions), provided that such substitution or variation shall not result in terms that are materially less favourable to the Holders, as certified in a Bank's Certificate (as defined in the Conditions) and an Independent Financial Adviser Certificate (as defined in the Conditions). In the exercise of its discretion, the Bank will have regard to the interest of the Holders as a class.

Despite Qualifying Notes must contain terms that are materially no less favourable to Holders as the original terms of the Notes, there can be no assurance that the terms of any Qualifying Notes will be viewed by the market as equally or more favourable, or that the Qualifying Notes will trade at prices that are equal to or higher than the prices at which the Notes would have traded on the basis of their original terms.

Moreover, prior to the making of any such substitution or variation, the Bank shall not be obliged to have regard to the tax position of individual Holders or to the tax consequences of any such substitution or variation for individual Holders. No Holder shall be entitled to claim, whether from the Bank, or any other person, any indemnification or payment in respect of any tax consequence of any such substitution or variation upon individual Holders of Notes.

Gross-up obligation under the Notes does not apply to any repayment of principal

The Bank's obligation under Condition 7 to pay additional amounts in the event of any withholding or deduction in respect of taxes on any payments of interest and any other amounts does not apply to any repayment of principal. Accordingly, if any such withholding or deduction were to apply, Holders of the Notes may receive less than the full amount of principal due under the Notes upon redemption, and the market value of the Notes may be adversely affected.

Risks relating to the 1-year Mid-Swap Rate and other "benchmarks"

The determination of the interest in respect of the Notes after the Reset Date is dependent upon the 1-year Mid-Swap Rate and the EURIBOR 6-month as determined at the relevant time (as specified in the Conditions). Certain interest rates and indices which are deemed to be "benchmarks" (including the 1-year Mid-Swap Rate and the EURIBOR) have been the subject of recent national and international regulatory guidance and proposals for reform including the recent approval and entry into force of the Benchmark Regulation, that could have a material impact on the Notes, its value and return, in particular, if the methodology or other terms of any "benchmarks" are changed in order to comply with new requirements. Such changes or the general increased regulatory scrutiny of “benchmarks” could, among other things, have the effect of reducing, increasing or otherwise affecting the volatility of the published rate or level of the relevant “benchmark” and increase the costs and risks of administering or otherwise participating in the setting of a “benchmark” and complying with any such regulations or requirements.

Such factors may have the following effects on certain “benchmarks”: (i) discourage market participants from continuing to administer or contribute to the “benchmark”; (ii) trigger changes in the rules or methodologies used in the “benchmark”; (iii) or lead to the disappearance of the “benchmark”.

The Conditions provide for certain fallback arrangements in the event that the Original Reference Rate ceases to exist or be published, or another Benchmark Event (as defined in Conditions) occurs. See Condition 3.7. These fallback arrangements include the possibility that the Reset Rate of Interest could be determined without any separate consent or approval of the Holders by reference to a Successor Rate or an Alternative Rate by (i) an Independent Financial Adviser, or (ii) if an Independent Financial Adviser cannot be appointed or the Independent Financial Adviser appointed fails to determine a Successor Rate or an Alternative Rate prior to the Reset Determination Date, the Bank (acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner and following consultation with the Independent Financial Adviser in the event one has been appointed). In addition, an Adjustment Spread may be applied to such Successor Rate or Alternative Rate, together with the making of certain Benchmark Amendments to the Conditions. In certain circumstances, the Adjustment Spread is the spread, quantum, formula or methodology which the Bank determines to be appropriate to reduce or eliminate to the extent reasonably practicable in the circumstances, any economic prejudice or benefit (as the case may be) to the Holders as a result of the replacement of the Original Reference Rate with the Successor Rate or the Alternative Rate (as the case may be). However, such Adjustment Spread may not be effective to reduce or eliminate economic prejudice to Holders. The use of a Successor Rate or an Alternative Rate may result in a lower Reset Rate of Interest than the payments that could have been made on the Notes if the Original Reference Rate continued to be available in its current form.

Where the Bank is unable to appoint an Independent Financial Adviser in a timely manner, or the Independent Financial Adviser or the Bank (as applicable) is unable to determine a Successor Rate or Alternative Rate before the Reset Determination Date, the 1-year Swap-Rate applicable to the Interest Period during the Reset Period will be equal to the last available 1-year Mid-Swap Rate on the Screen Page.

Any of the foregoing could have an adverse effect on the value or liquidity of, and return on, the Notes. Investors should consider these matters when making their investment decision with respect to the Notes.

CONDITIONS OF THE NOTES

The following is the text of the Conditions of the Notes.

The Notes (as defined below) have been issued by Ibercaja Banco, S.A. (the “Bank”) by virtue of the resolutions passed by the meeting of the Board of Directors (Consejo de Administración) of the Bank, held on 28 October 2021.

1 Form, Denomination and Title

1.1 The Notes have been issued in uncertificated, dematerialised book-entry form (anotaciones en cuenta) in euro in an aggregate nominal amount of €50,000,000 and in the denomination of €100,000 (as reduced from time to time by any write down or cancellation, as the case may be, the “principal amount” of a Note).

1.2 The Notes have been registered with Iberclear as managing entity of the central registry of the Spanish settlement system (the “Spanish Central Registry”). Holders of a beneficial interest in the Notes who do not have, directly or indirectly through their custodians, a participating account with Iberclear may participate in the Notes through bridge accounts maintained by each of Euroclear Bank SA/NV (“Euroclear”) and Clearstream Banking, S.A. (“Clearstream Luxembourg”) with Iberclear.

Iberclear manages the settlement of the Notes, notwithstanding the Bank’s commitment to assist, when appropriate, on the clearing and settlement of the Notes through Euroclear and Clearstream Luxembourg.

The Spanish National Numbering Agency (Agencia Nacional de Codificación de Valores Mobiliarios) has assigned the following International Securities Identification Number (ISIN) to identify the Notes: ES0244251023.

1.3 Title to the Notes is evidenced by book entries, and each person shown in the Spanish Central Registry managed by Iberclear and in the registries maintained by the Iberclear Members as having an interest in the Notes shall be (except as otherwise required by Spanish law) considered the holder of the principal amount of the Notes recorded therein. In these Conditions, the “Holder” means the person in whose name such Notes are for the time being registered in the Spanish Central Registry managed by Iberclear or, as the case may be, the relevant Iberclear Member accounting book (or, in the case of a joint holding, the first named thereof) and Holder shall be construed accordingly.

One or more certificates (each a “Certificate”) attesting to the relevant Holder’s holding of Notes in the relevant registry will be delivered by the relevant Iberclear Member or by Iberclear (in each case, in accordance with the requirements of Spanish law and the relevant Iberclear Member’s or, as the case may be, Iberclear’s procedures) to such Holder upon such Holder’s request.

The Notes have been issued without any restrictions on their transferability. Consequently, the Notes may be transferred and title to the Notes may pass (subject to Spanish law and to compliance with all applicable rules, restrictions and requirements of Iberclear or, as the case may be, the relevant Iberclear Member) upon registration in the relevant registry of each Iberclear Member and/or Iberclear itself, as applicable. Each Holder will be (except as otherwise required by Spanish law) treated as the absolute owner of the relevant Notes for all purposes (whether or not it is overdue and regardless of any notice of ownership, trust or any interest, or any writing on, or the theft or loss of, the Certificate issued in respect of it), and no person will be liable for so treating the Holder.

2 Status of Notes

The payment obligations of the Bank under the Notes on account of principal constitute direct, unconditional, unsubordinated and unsecured ordinary claims (“créditos ordinarios”) of the Bank and, in accordance with the Insolvency Law and Additional Provision 14.2° of Law 11/2015, but subject to any other ranking that may apply as a result of any mandatory provision of law (or otherwise), upon the insolvency (concurso) of the Bank (and unless they qualify as subordinated claims (“créditos subordinados”) pursuant to Article 281.1 of the Insolvency Law or equivalent legal provision which replaces it in the future), would rank:

- (a) senior to:
 - (i) Senior Non Preferred Liabilities; and
 - (ii) subordinated obligations (“créditos subordinados”) of the Issuer in accordance with Article 281.1 of the Insolvency Law; and
- (b) pari passu among themselves and with any Senior Preferred Liabilities

As of the Issue Date, according to the Insolvency Law, claims of Holders in respect of interest accrued but unpaid as of the commencement of any insolvency procedure in respect of the Bank shall constitute subordinated claims (“creditos subordinados”) against the Bank ranking in accordance with the provisions of Article 281.1.3° of the Insolvency Law and accrual of interest shall be suspended from the date of the declaration of insolvency of the Bank.

The payment obligations of the Issuer under the Notes are subject to, and may be limited by, the exercise of any Loss Absorbing Powers. The Notes are not subject to any set-off or netting arrangements that would undermine their capacity to absorb losses in resolution. The Notes are neither secured, nor subject to a guarantee or any other arrangement that enhances the seniority of the claims under the Notes.

3 Interest Payments

3.1 Interest Rate

The Notes bear interest on their outstanding principal amount at the applicable Interest Rate from (and including) the Issue Date in accordance with the provisions of this Condition 3.

Interest shall be payable on the Notes annually in arrear on each Interest Payment Date as provided in this Condition 3.

Where it is necessary to compute an amount of interest in respect of any Note for a period which is less than a complete Interest Period, the relevant day-count fraction shall be determined on the basis of the number of days in the relevant period, from and including the date from which interest begins to accrue to but excluding the date on which it falls due, divided by the actual number of days in the Interest Period in which the relevant period falls (including the first such day but excluding the last).

3.2 Interest Accrual

The Notes will cease to bear interest from (and including) the due date for redemption thereof pursuant to Condition 4.1, 4.3, 4.4 or 4.5 or the date of cancellation thereof pursuant to Condition 4.8, as the case may be, unless payment of all amounts due in respect of such Note (if any) is not properly and duly made, in which event interest shall continue to accrue on the Notes, both before and after judgment, and shall be payable, as provided in these Conditions up to (but excluding) the Relevant Date. Interest in respect of any Note for any period shall be equal to the product of the outstanding principal amount of the Note, the relevant Interest Rate and the day-count fraction as described in Condition 3.1 for the relevant period, rounding the resultant figure to the nearest cent (half a cent being rounded upwards).

3.3 Initial Fixed Interest Rate

During the Initial Fixed Rate Interest Period, the Notes bear interest at the rate of 1.125% per annum (the “Initial Fixed Interest Rate”). The amount of interest payable on each Interest Payment Date during the Initial Fixed Rate Interest Period shall be €1,125 in respect of each Note of €100,000 denomination.

3.4 Reset Rate of Interest

The Interest Rate will be reset (the “Reset Rate of Interest”) in accordance with this Condition 3 on the Reset Date. The Reset Rate of Interest will be determined by the Bank on the Reset Determination Date as the sum of the 1-year Mid-Swap Rate and the Margin. From (and including) the Reset Date the Notes bear interest at the Reset Rate of Interest.

3.5 Determination of Reset Rate of Interest

The Bank will, as soon as practicable after 11:00 a.m. (Central European time) on the Reset Determination Date, determine the Reset Rate of Interest in respect of the Reset Period.

3.6 Publication of Reset Rate of Interest

The Bank shall cause notice of the Reset Rate of Interest determined in accordance with this Condition 3 in respect of the Reset Period to be given to Holders in accordance with Condition 10 as soon as practicable after its determination but in any event not later than the fourth Business Day after the Reset Determination Date.

3.7 Benchmark discontinuation

(a) Independent Financial Adviser

If at the time of determination of the Reset Rate of Interest, a Benchmark Event occurs or has occurred and is continuing, then the Bank shall use its reasonable endeavours to appoint an Independent Financial Adviser, as soon as reasonably practicable, to determine a Successor Rate, failing which an Alternative Rate (in accordance with Condition 3.7(b)) and, in either case, an Adjustment Spread if any (in accordance with Condition 3.7(c)) and any Benchmark Amendments (in accordance with Condition 3.7(d)).

If the Bank (i) is unable to appoint an Independent Financial Adviser; or, (ii) the Independent Financial Adviser appointed by it fails to determine a Successor Rate or, failing which, an Alternative Rate in accordance with this Condition 3.7(a) prior to the Reset Determination Date, the Bank (acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner and following consultation with the Independent Financial Adviser in the event one has been appointed) may determine a Successor Rate or, failing which, an Alternative Rate.

If the Bank is unable or unwilling to determine a Successor Rate or an Alternative Rate prior to the Reset Determination Date, the Reset Rate of Interest shall be determined using the 1-year Mid-Swap Rate last displayed on the relevant Screen Page prior to the Reset Determination Date.

(b) Successor Rate or Alternative Rate

If the Independent Financial Adviser or the Bank, acting in good faith and in a reasonable commercial manner and following consultation with the Independent Financial Adviser in the event one has been appointed, as applicable, determines that:

- (i) there is a Successor Rate, then such Successor Rate shall (subject to adjustment as provided in Condition 3.7(c) subsequently be used in place of the Original Reference Rate to determine the Reset Rate of Interest (or the relevant component part thereof) (subject to the operation of this Condition 3.7); or
- (ii) there is no Successor Rate but that there is an Alternative Rate, then such Alternative Rate shall (subject to adjustment as provided in Condition 3.7(c) subsequently be used in place of the Original Reference Rate to determine the Reset Rate of Interest (or the relevant component part thereof) (subject to the operation of this Condition 3.7).

(c) Adjustment Spread

If the Independent Financial Adviser or the Bank, acting in good faith and in a reasonable commercial manner and following consultation with the Independent Financial Adviser in the event one has been appointed, as applicable, determines (i) that an Adjustment Spread is required to be applied to the Successor Rate or the Alternative Rate (as the case may be) and (ii) the quantum of, or a formula or methodology for determining, such Adjustment Spread, then such Adjustment Spread shall be applied to the Successor Rate or the Alternative Rate (as the case may be).

(d) Benchmark Amendments

If any Successor Rate, Alternative Rate and/or Adjustment Spread is determined in accordance with this Condition 3.7 and the Independent Financial Adviser or the Bank, acting in good faith and in a reasonable commercial manner and following consultation with the Independent Financial Adviser in the event one has been appointed, as applicable, determines (i) that amendments to the day count fraction, the business days convention, the Reset Determination Date, the floating leg of the 1-year Mid-Swap Rate, the Reset Rate of Interest, and the method for determining the fallback rate in relation to the Notes are necessary in order to follow market practice in relation to the Successor Rate or Alternative Rate and/or Adjustment Spread (such amendments, the “Benchmark Amendments”) and (ii) the terms of the Benchmark Amendments, then the Bank shall, subject to giving notice thereof in accordance with Condition 3.7(e), without any requirement for consent or approval of the Holders, vary these Conditions to give effect to such Benchmark Amendments with the date specified in such notice.

In connection with any such variation in accordance with this Condition 3.7(d), the Bank shall comply with the rules of any stock exchange on which the Notes are for the time being listed or admitted to trading.

Any Successor Rate, Alternative Rate, Adjustment Spread and the specific terms of any Benchmark Amendments determined under this Condition 3.7 will be notified promptly by the Bank to the Holders in accordance with Condition 10. Such notice shall be irrevocable and shall specify the effective date of the Benchmark Amendments, if any, and will be binding on the Bank and the Holders.

(f) Survival of the Original Reference Rate

Without prejudice to the obligations of the Bank under this Condition 3.7, the Original Reference Rate and the fallback provisions otherwise provided for in these Conditions will continue to apply unless and until a Benchmark Event has occurred.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Condition 3.7, no Successor Rate, Alternative Rate, Adjustment Spread or Benchmark Amendments (as applicable) will be adopted, if and to the extent that, in the determination of the Bank, the same could reasonably be expected to result in the partial or full exclusion of the Notes from treatment as MREL-Eligible Instruments of the Group.

4 Redemption, Substitution, Variation and Purchase

4.1 Final Redemption

Unless previously redeemed or purchased and cancelled pursuant to Conditions 4.7 and 4.8 or substituted and cancelled pursuant to Conditions 4.6 and 4.8, the Notes will be redeemed at their principal amount, together with accrued and unpaid interest, on 2 December 2027. The Notes may not be redeemed at the option of the Bank other than in accordance with this Condition 4.

4.2 Conditions to Redemption, Substitution, Variation and Purchase prior to Final Redemption

The Bank may, subject to compliance with the Applicable Banking Regulations then in force and subject to the prior Supervisory Permission, when applicable, redeem or purchase the Notes or substitute or vary the terms of the Notes in each case in accordance with Conditions 4.3, 4.4, 4.5, 4.6 or 4.7(a).

Prior to the publication of any notice of substitution, variation or redemption pursuant to Conditions 4.4, 4.5 and 4.6, the Bank shall make available to the Holders at its registered office a certificate signed by two of its duly Authorised Signatories stating that the relevant requirement or circumstance giving rise to the right to redeem, substitute or, as appropriate, vary is satisfied.

4.3 Bank's Call Option

Subject to Condition 4.2, the Bank may, by giving not less than 15 nor more than 60 days' notice to the Holders in accordance with Condition 10 (which notice shall be irrevocable and shall specify the date for redemption), elect to redeem all, but not some only, of the Notes on the Reset Date at their principal amount, together with any accrued and unpaid interest thereon to (but excluding) the date fixed for redemption. Upon the expiry of such notice, the Bank shall redeem the Notes.

4.4 Redemption Due to Tax Event

If, prior to the giving of the notice referred to below in this Condition 4.4, a Tax Event has occurred and is continuing, then the Bank may, subject to Condition 4.2 and having given not less than 15 nor more than 60 days' notice to the Holders in accordance with Condition 10 (which notice shall be irrevocable and shall specify the date for redemption), elect to redeem in accordance with these Conditions at any time all, but not some only, of the Notes at their principal amount, together with any accrued and unpaid interest thereon to (but excluding) the date fixed for redemption. Upon the expiry of such notice, the Bank shall redeem the Notes.

4.5 Redemption Due to Disqualification Event

If, prior to the giving of the notice referred to below in this Condition 4.5, a Disqualification Event has occurred and is continuing, then the Bank may, subject to Condition 4.2 and having given not less than 15 nor more than 60 days' notice to the Holders in accordance with Condition 10 (which notice shall be irrevocable and shall specify the date for redemption), elect to redeem in accordance with these Conditions at any time all, but not some only, of the Notes at their principal amount, together with any accrued and unpaid interest thereon to (but excluding) the date fixed for redemption. Upon the expiry of such notice, the Bank shall redeem the Notes.

4.6 Substitution or Variation

If a Tax Event or a Disqualification Event has occurred and is continuing, then the Bank may, subject to Condition 4.2 and having given not less than 15 nor more than 60 days' notice to the Holders in accordance with Condition 10 but without any requirement for the consent or approval of the Holders, at any time either substitute all (but not some only) of the Notes for, or vary the terms of all (but not some only) of the Notes so that they remain or, as appropriate, become, Qualifying Notes. Upon the expiry of such notice, the Bank shall either vary the terms of or substitute the Notes in accordance with this Condition 4.6, as the case may be.

Any notice provided in accordance with this Condition 4.6 shall be irrevocable, specify the relevant details of the manner in which such substitution or, as the case may be, variation shall take effect (including the date for substitution or variation) and where the Holders can inspect or obtain copies of the new conditions of the Notes. Such substitution or, as the case may be, variation will be effected without any cost or charge to the Holders.

Holders shall, by virtue of subscribing and/or purchasing and holding any Notes, be deemed to accept the substitution or variation of the terms of such Notes and to grant full power and authority to the Bank to take any action and/or to execute and deliver any document in the name and/or on behalf of the Holders which is necessary or convenient to complete the substitution or variation of the terms of the Notes.

In connection with any substitution or variation in accordance with this Condition 4.6, the Bank shall comply with the rules of any stock exchange on which the Notes are for the time being listed or admitted to trading.

4.7 Purchases

- (a) The Bank, or any member of the Group, may, subject to Condition 4.2, purchase (or otherwise acquire), or procure others to purchase (or otherwise acquire) beneficially for their account, Notes in any manner and at any price. The Notes so purchased (or acquired), while held by or on behalf of the Bank, or any member of the Group, shall not entitle the Holder to vote at any meetings of the Holders and shall not be deemed to be outstanding for the purposes of calculating quorums at meetings of the Holders.
- (b) Notwithstanding Condition 4.2, the Bank or any member of the Group, or any agent on its or their behalf shall have the right at all times to purchase the Notes for market making purposes or if it would be beneficial from a prudential point of view and justified by exceptional circumstances subject to prior Supervisory Permission if required under prevailing Applicable Banking Regulations, and has otherwise complied with any conditions therefore set out in the Applicable Banking Regulations.

4.8 Cancellation

All Notes substituted by the Bank pursuant to Condition 4.6 will forthwith be cancelled. All Notes purchased by or on behalf of the Bank may, subject to obtaining any Supervisory Permission therefore if required under prevailing Applicable Banking Regulations, be held, resold or, at the option of the Bank, cancelled forthwith. Any Notes so cancelled may not be resold and the obligations of the Bank in respect of any such Notes shall be discharged.

4.9 Unauthorised Purchases

By its acquisition of any Note, each Holder shall be deemed to have acknowledged and accepted that, if the Bank or any member of the Group purchases any Note from a Holder without having obtained the prior Supervisory Permission as required under the Applicable Banking Regulations in effect at the relevant time, the Holder shall be obliged to repay in full to the Bank or to the relevant member of the Group, as the case may be, any amounts received by it in consideration of such purchase.

5 Payments

5.1 Method of Payment

Payments of principal and interest in respect of the Notes will be made in euro by transfer to the registered euro account of the relevant Holder maintained by or on behalf of it with a bank that processes payments in a city in which banks have access to the TARGET System, details of which appear in the records of Iberclear or, as the case may be, the relevant Iberclear Member at close of business on the day immediately preceding the date on which the payment of principal or interest, as the case may be, falls due. Holders must rely on the procedures of Iberclear or, as the case may be, the relevant Iberclear Member to receive payments under the relevant Notes. The Bank will have no responsibility or liability for the records relating to payments made in respect of the Notes.

5.2 Payments Subject to Laws

Save as provided in Condition 7, payments will be subject in all cases to any applicable fiscal or other laws, regulations and directives in the place of payment or other laws or regulations to which the Bank agrees to be subject and the Bank will not be liable for any taxes or duties of whatever nature imposed or levied by such laws, regulations, directives or agreements. No commissions or expenses shall be charged to the Holders in respect of such payments.

5.3 Delay in Payment

Holders will not be entitled to any interest or other payment for any delay after the due date in receiving the amount due on a Note if the due date is not a Business Day.

5.4 Non-Business Days

If any date for payment in respect of any Note is not a Business Day, the Holder shall not be entitled to payment until the next following Business Day.

6 Default

If an order is made by any competent court commencing insolvency proceedings against the Bank or if any order is made by any competent court or resolution passed for the winding up or dissolution of the Bank (except in the case of a reconstruction, merger or amalgamation (i) which has been approved by an Extraordinary Resolution at a meeting of Holders of the Notes; or (ii) where the entity resulting from any such reconstruction, merger or amalgamation is (A) a financial institution (entidad de crédito) under article 1 of Law 10/2014, as amended and restated and (B) has a rating for long-term senior debt assigned by a Rating Agency equivalent to or higher than the rating for long-term senior debt of the Bank immediately prior to such reconstruction, merger or amalgamation) and such order is continuing, then any Note may, unless there has been an Extraordinary Resolution to the contrary at a meeting of Holders, by written notice addressed by the Holder thereof to the Bank and delivered to the Bank, be declared immediately due and payable, whereupon the principal amount of such Notes together with any accrued and unpaid interest thereon to the date of payment shall, when permitted by applicable Spanish law, become immediately due and payable without further action or formality.

If a default occurs under this Condition 6, claims of Holders in respect of the Notes shall rank as set out under Condition 2.

Except as set out in this Condition 6, Holders shall have no right to declare immediately due and payable any amounts of principal or interest in respect of the Notes.

By its acquisition of any Note, each Holder acknowledges and accepts that the taking by the Relevant Resolution Authority of an early intervention measure or a resolution action in respect of the Bank under the Applicable Banking Regulations shall not constitute an event of default and Holders shall have no right to declare immediately due and payable any amounts of principal or interest in respect of the Notes.

7 Taxation

All payments of interest and any other amounts payable (excluding, for the avoidance of doubt, any repayment of principal) in respect of the Notes by or on behalf of the Bank will be made free and clear of, and without withholding or deduction for or on account of, any present or future taxes, duties, assessments or governmental charges of whatever nature unless such withholding or deduction is required by law. In the event that any such withholding or deduction is imposed or levied by or on behalf of the Kingdom of Spain or any political subdivision thereof or any authority or agency therein or thereof having power to tax in respect of payments of interest and any other amounts (excluding, for the avoidance of doubt, any repayment of principal), the Bank shall pay such additional amounts as will result in Holders receiving such amounts as they would have received in respect of such payments of interest and any other amounts had no such withholding or deduction been required.

The Bank shall not be required to pay any additional amounts in relation to any payment in respect of Notes:

- (a) presented for payment by or on behalf of a Holder who is liable for such taxes, duties, assessments or governmental charges in respect of the Notes by reason of his having some connection with Spain other than:
 - (i) the mere holding of Notes; or
 - (ii) the receipt of any payment in respect of Notes;
- (b) where taxes are imposed by the Kingdom of Spain (or any political subdivision thereof or any authority or agency therein or thereof having power to tax) that are (i) any estate, inheritance, gift, sales, transfer, personal property or similar taxes or (ii) solely due to the appointment by any Holder, or any person through which such Holder holds such Note, of a custodian, collection agent, person or entity acting on its behalf or similar person in relation to such Note; or
- (c) to, or to a third party on behalf of, a Holder who is an individual resident for tax purposes in the Kingdom of Spain (or any political subdivision or any authority thereof or therein having power to tax); or
- (d) to, or to a third party on behalf of, a Holder in respect of whose Notes the Bank (or an agent acting on behalf of the Bank) has not received such information as it may be required to obtain in order to comply with Spanish tax reporting requirements, as may be necessary to allow payments on such Notes to be made free and clear of withholding tax or deduction on account of any taxes imposed by Spain, including when the Bank (or an agent acting on behalf of the Bank) does not receive a duly executed and completed certificate, pursuant to Law 10/2014 and Royal Decree 1065/2007 of 27 July, as amended by Royal Decree 1145/2011 of 29 July, and any implementing legislation or regulation.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Conditions, any amounts to be paid by the Bank on the Notes will be paid net of any deduction or withholding imposed or required pursuant to an agreement described in Section 1471(b) of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”), or otherwise imposed pursuant to Sections 1471 to 1474 of the Code and any regulations or agreements thereunder or official interpretations thereof (“FATCA”) or any law implementing an intergovernmental approach to FATCA.

See “Taxation” for a fuller description of certain tax considerations relating to the Notes.

8 Prescription

Claims against the Bank for payment in respect of the Notes shall be prescribed and become void unless made within five years after the date on which the payment in question becomes due and payable.

9 Meetings of Holders, Modification and Substitution

9.1 Convening meetings

(a) Meetings convened by the Bank

The Bank may, at any time, and shall, if so directed in writing by Holders holding not less than 10% in aggregate principal amount of the Notes for the time being outstanding (the “relevant Holders”), convene a meeting of Holders.

(b) Meetings convened by the Holders

If the Bank has not delivered notice convening a meeting of the Holders prior to the expiry of seven clear days from the date on which the Bank has received written directions from the relevant Holders to do so, the relevant Holders may themselves convene the meeting in place of the Bank subject to and in accordance with the provisions of this Condition 9, provided however that, in such circumstances all references to the performance by the Bank of a particular obligation in this Condition 9, or the delivery by the Bank of any notice in accordance with Condition 10, shall be deemed to be a reference to the performance by the relevant Holders of such obligation and/or the delivery of such notice. Any costs and expenses incurred by the relevant Holders as a result of, in connection with or related to the convening by them of a meeting of the Holders in such circumstances shall be for the account of the Bank and shall be promptly paid by the Bank to the account designated for such purpose in writing by the relevant Holders upon presentation of receipts, invoices or other documentary evidence of such costs.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, no refusal or failure by the Bank to convene a meeting of the Holders when so directed by the relevant Holders shall give rise to any right by any Holder to declare any principal amounts or interest in respect of the Notes immediately due and payable.

9.2 Procedures for convening meetings

At least 21 clear days' notice specifying the place (which need not be a physical place and instead may be by way of conference call, including by use of a videoconference platform), day and hour of the meeting shall be given to the Holders in the manner provided in Condition 10.

The notice, which shall be in the English language, shall state generally the nature of the business to be transacted at the meeting and, where the meeting has been convened to vote on any matter requiring the approval of the Holders by means of an Extraordinary Resolution only, shall specify the terms of the Extraordinary Resolution to be proposed. This notice shall include information as to the manner in which Holders are entitled to attend and vote at the meeting.

If the meeting has been convened by the relevant Holders in the circumstances set out in Condition 9.1(b), a copy of the notice shall also be sent by certified post to the Bank.

9.3 Chairman

The person (who may be, but need not be, a Holder) nominated in writing by the Bank (the “Chairman”) shall be entitled to take the chair at each meeting but if no nomination is made or if at any meeting the person nominated is not present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the Holders present shall choose one of their number to be Chairman, failing which the Bank may appoint a Chairman. The Chairman of an adjourned meeting need not be the same person as was Chairman of the meeting from which the adjournment took place.

9.4 Quorums

(a) Regular Quorum

At any meeting one or more Eligible Persons present and holding or representing in the aggregate not less than 5% in principal amount of the Notes for the time being outstanding shall (except for the purpose of passing an Extraordinary Resolution) form a quorum for the transaction of business, and no business (other than the choosing of a Chairman in accordance with Condition 9.3) shall be transacted at any meeting unless the required quorum is present at the commencement of business.

(b) Extraordinary Quorum

The quorum at any meeting for passing an Extraordinary Resolution shall (subject as provided below) be one or more Eligible Persons present and holding or representing in the aggregate not less than 50% in principal amount of the Notes for the time being outstanding.

(c) Enhanced Quorum

- (i) a reduction or cancellation of the principal amount of the Notes for the time being outstanding; or
- (ii) a reduction of the amount payable or modification of the Interest Payment Dates or variation of the method of calculating the Interest Rate; or
- (iii) a modification of the currency in which payments under the Notes are to be made; or
- (iv) a modification of the majority required to pass an Extraordinary Resolution; or

- (v) the sanctioning of any scheme or proposal described in Condition 9.8(b)(vi) below; or
- (vi) any proposal to amend any of the terms of this sub-paragraph 9.4(c) or the terms of Condition 9.5(a) below, the quorum shall be one or more Eligible Persons present and holding or representing in the aggregate not less than two-thirds in principal amount of the Notes for the time being outstanding.

9.5 Adjourned Meeting

- (a) If within 15 minutes (or such longer period not exceeding 30 minutes as the Chairman may decide) after the time appointed for any meeting a quorum is not present for the transaction of any particular business, then, subject and without prejudice to the transaction of the business (if any) for which a quorum is present, the meeting shall, if convened by Holders or if the Bank was required by Holders to convene such meeting pursuant to Condition 9.1, be dissolved. ALTERNATIVE PERFORMANCE MEASURES

The following discussion sets out information related to certain non-IFRS financial measures of the Group, which the Group regards as alternative performance measures (“APMs”) for the purposes of Commission Delegated Regulation (EU) 2019/979 and as defined in the ESMA Guidelines on Alternative Performance Measures dated 5 October 2015.

The Group uses APMs, which are financial measures derived from (or based on) the Group’s accounting records, to evaluate period to period changes that are not required by, or presented in accordance with, IFRS-EU. Many of these APMs are based on the Group’s internal estimates, assumptions and calculations. These APMs are not measures of the Group’s financial performance under IFRS-EU, are not audited or reviewed and should not be considered as an alternative to any balance sheet, income statement or cash flow statement item. Accordingly, investors are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these APMs.

The Group has included these APMs because they are used by management to evaluate its performance and because the Group believes these APMs will assist securities analysts, investors and other interested parties in having a better understanding of the Group’s financial condition and results of operations. These APMs are commonly reported by financial institutions, as they capture information that is not immediately apparent from the IFRS-EU framework. Further, they may be helpful for the in-depth analysis of the performance of the highly regulated and specialized sector in which the Issuer operates, and should allow securities analysts, investors and other interested parties to compare the Group’s performance with that of the Group’s peers more effectively.

These APMs have limitations as analytical tools and should not be considered in isolation from, or as a substitute for analysis of, the Group’s financial condition or results of operations as reported under IFRS-EU. Accordingly, investors are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these APMs. Other companies in the Issuer’s industry may calculate similarly titled measures differently than the Issuer does, such that disclosure of similarly titled measures by other companies may not be comparable with the Group’s ones. Investors are advised to review these APMs in conjunction with the Annual Accounts and their respective accompanying notes included in this Prospectus and the related discussion thereof set forth in this Prospectus.

The Group considers that the APMs contained in this Prospectus comply with the ESMA Guidelines.

The Group segments certain APMs by market based on the location of the branch through which the Group manages the commercial relationship with each of its clients.

History and development

Ibercaja Banco is a company incorporated under the laws of Spain as a public limited liability company (sociedad anónima) with the status of a bank. As a financial institution, the Issuer is subject to special banking legislation and related regulations in respect of the management, supervision and solvency of credit institutions, in particular, Law 10/2014, of 26 June, on organisation, supervision and solvency of credit entities (“Law 10/2014”) and Royal Decree 84/2015, of 13 February, implementing Law 10/2014 (“Royal Decree 84/2015”), and is subject to the supervision, control and regulation of the Bank of Spain, the ECB under the supervision system created by the SSM, the SRB, the CNMV and the Directorate General of Insurance and Pension Funds.

Ibercaja Banco is also subject to the Spanish Companies Law (Texto refundido de la Ley de Sociedades de Capital aprobado por el Real Decreto Legislativo 1/2010, de 2 de julio), the Spanish Securities Market Law, Royal Decree 217/2008, of 15 February, on the legal regime for investment services companies and other entities providing investment services (Real Decreto 217/2008, de 15 de febrero, sobre el régimen jurídico de las empresas de servicios de inversión y de las demás entidades que prestan servicios de inversión) and further implementing legislation.

The Issuer was incorporated on 22 September 2011 for an unlimited period of time pursuant to a notarised public deed of incorporation granted before the public notary of Zaragoza Mr. Francisco de Asís Pizarro Moreno under number 3,169 of his records and registered with the Commercial Registry of Zaragoza under volume 3,865, page Z-52186, book 0 and sheet 1, and as a credit institution with the Special Registry at the Bank of Spain (Registro Administrativo de Bancos y Banqueros del Banco de España) under number 2,085. Ibercaja Banco holds Spanish tax identification number (NIF) A-99319030 and its LEI code is 549300OLBL49CW8CT155.

The Issuer’s legal name is Ibercaja Banco, S.A. and it operates under the commercial name “Ibercaja Banco”.

The registered office of the Issuer is at Plaza de Basilio Paraíso, 2, 50008 Zaragoza, Spain. Its phone number is +34 976 76 79 83 and its corporate website is “www.ibercajabanco.com” (the information on the corporate website of the Issuer does not form part of the Prospectus unless that information is incorporated by reference into the Prospectus).

Ibercaja Banco’s corporate purpose consists of all types of general banking activities, transactions, actions, contracts and services provided they are permitted by law, including the rendering of investment and other auxiliary services.

The history of the Issuer spans more than 145 years, and starts with the foundation of the savings bank Caja de Ahorros y Monte de Piedad de Zaragoza, Aragón y Rioja (the “Ibercaja Savings Bank”) in 1873 and the commencement of its operations in 1876 with the aim of stimulating the economies of the autonomous regions of Aragón and La Rioja by pursuing social welfare projects.

The main milestones of the Issuer’s history are described below:

- between 1933 and 1964, the Ibercaja Savings Bank carried out its first expansion plan with the opening of branches in Aragón, La Rioja and Guadalajara;

- in 1988, the Ibercaja Savings Bank created the Financial Group²² to offer products and services outside the scope of core banking;
- in 1989, the Ibercaja Savings Bank initiated an expansion plan with the opening of branches in Madrid and the Mediterranean basin, that has led to the Issuer's current well-established presence in these Growth Markets;
- in July 2011, within the framework of the restructuring of the Spanish financial system, the general assembly of the Ibercaja Savings Bank (now transformed into the Ibercaja Foundation as set out below) approved the creation of Ibercaja Banco, as a result of the segregation and contribution to Ibercaja Banco of the financial activity of the Ibercaja Savings Bank;
- in 2012, despite the turmoil in the Spanish banking sector, the Issuer passed the bottom-up stress test conducted by Oliver Wyman and was classified within the group of banks with no capital shortfall identified, complying with applicable capital requirements without any state aid;
- in July 2013, the Issuer acquired 100% of the share capital of Banco Caja3, an entity formed by the segregation and subsequent merger of the financial activity of three former savings banks: Caja de Ahorros de la Inmaculada de Aragón ("Fundación Inmaculada de Aragón"), Monte de Piedad y Caja General de Ahorros de Badajoz ("Fundación Caja Badajoz") and Monte de Piedad del Círculo Católico de Burgos ("Fundación Círculo de Burgos"). The restructuring plan of Banco Caja3 (approved by the Bank of Spain and the European Commission) included its integration into a larger financial group. As part of its restructuring plan, Banco Caja3 received €407 million of public funds through the subscription by the FROB of contingent convertible bonds to be issued by Banco Caja3 (the "Banco Caja3 CoCos"). The acquisition of Banco Caja3 was structured as a capital increase in the Issuer of €325.5 million, which was subscribed by the shareholders of Banco Caja3, in exchange for Banco Caja3's entire share capital. Fundación Inmaculada de Aragón, Fundación Caja Badajoz and Fundación Círculo de Burgos received in consideration an aggregate of 11.96% of the Issuer's share capital, while the Ibercaja Savings Bank held the remaining 88.04% (both as amended by the valuation adjustments on the assets transferred to SAREB). The deed of merger by absorption of Banco Caja3 by the Issuer was executed in October 2014 and Banco Caja3 ceased to exist by dissolution without liquidation and all of its assets and liabilities were transferred to the Issuer by means of universal succession;
- in September 2014, the Ibercaja Savings Bank was transformed into the Ibercaja Foundation. Since then, the Ibercaja Foundation has been the Issuer's controlling shareholder retaining the aforementioned 88.04% shareholding and with a view to reduce its stake pursuant to the Banking Foundations Act;
- in 2015, the current management team was appointed;
- between March 2016 and March 2017, with the consent of the ECB, the Issuer completed the early redemption of all Banco Caja3 CoCos;
- in April 2021, Ibercaja Banco launched its "Plan Desafío 2023" Strategic Plan; and
- in June 2021, Ibercaja Banco celebrated its 145 years of history.

As of 30 September 2021, the Group ranked above peers in terms of customer satisfaction, being among the three top ranked entities in Spain with a score of 7.56 on a scale from 0 to 10 in global customer satisfaction (source: BMKS).

As a result of the strong customer satisfaction levels, the Group has a loyal customer base, with an average customer tenure of 20 years. The following table shows the Group's customer tenure for individual customers as of 30 September 2021:

As of 30 September 2021
Less than two years.....	5.60
Between two and 10 years.....	26.94
Between 10 and 20 years	17.07
More than 20 years.....	50.39
Total	100

As a result of the strong customer satisfaction levels, the Group's customers' loyalty and trust results in long-lasting relationships, which the Group's commercial efficiency turns into sales of its key products, being the basis of the Group's differentiated revenue generation model. The average number of products/services per customer is 6.9 as of 30 September 2021.

Based on the type of customer, the Group divides its business activities in the following divisions: (i) Personal Banking, (ii) Private Banking, (iii) Rest of Families, (iv) Non-Real Estate Corporates, (v) Real Estate Corporates and (vi) Institutions, Public Sector and Others.

As of 30 September 2021, the Group had approximately 1.8 million customers, of which 16.0% were Personal Banking, 0.6% Private Banking, 73.7% Rest of Families, 4.9% Non-Real Estate Corporates, 0.4% Real Estate Corporates and 4.4% Institutions, Public Sector and Others customers.

Personal Banking

The Personal Banking customer segment includes individuals with a net worth (retail customer funds^{APM} and securities) of between €100,000 and €500,000 in the Home Markets (and between €75,000 and €500,000 outside of the Home Markets).

This segment offers a management model based on a personal manager who assists customers in their financial planning, advises them on their investments, and gives them detailed information on the products and services that best meet their financial needs. Personal managers intend to offer customers the best investment strategy for their risk profile and preferences. Customers have their own digital banking service, preferential access to certain services and tailored products, making the Group's service model a "one-stop premium shop".

As of 30 September 2021, the Group's Personal Banking segment was managed by 434 full time managers, offering personalized solutions to more than 290,000 customers. In addition, 49 personal digital managers support 30,000 clients. The majority of specialised advisors assigned to this segment have a solid training, achieved through internal and external programs, recognised by well-known entities, such as the European Financial Planning Association. The Financial Group plays a key role in the product design of the Personal Banking segment, as does the Private Banking segment by training Personal Banking managers. The Personal Banking Service model has been certified by Aenor guaranteeing a best-in-class service to the Group's customers. In fact, in 2020 the Group obtained the certification of service excellence management for the Personal Banking segment granted by Aenor, being the first Spanish financial institution to receive it. This certification is in addition to the certification for personal wealth management advice, also awarded by Aenor, which the Group hold since 2012.

Private Banking

The Private Banking customer segment is addressed to individuals with a net worth (retail customer funds^{APM} and securities) in excess of €500,000 (€300,000 in Extremadura). This segment offers banking services to 11,000 customers who have more sophisticated banking needs and investment profiles, providing them with a specialised, personalised and high-quality service. Private Banking customers are advised by 79 specialised advisors and have access to all types of financial assets such as listed securities, mutual funds, variable capital investment companies (Sociedades de Inversión de Capital Variable or "SICAVs") or structured deposits. Private Banking customers, together with Personal Banking customers, are the main target of the Group's asset management business.

Rest of Families

The Rest of Families customer segment comprises the Group's largest customer segment and the main users of its lending and deposit-taking services. The management of the branch network in this segment focuses on capturing new customers and consolidating the relationship with and loyalty of existing ones.

This is done through proposals adapted to personal needs, depending on the risk profile and disposable income of each customer.

Within its lending activity, Ibercaja Banco has historically specialised in financing housing for individuals.

Other products offered to the Group's Rest of Families segment include ordinary banking products such as current and savings accounts, term deposits, credit and debit cards and consumer loans, as well as other products from the Financial Group such as mutual funds, pension funds and insurance products.

Non-Real Estate Corporates

As of 30 September 2021, the Group's Non-Real Estate Corporates customer segment was served by a team of 212 full-time specialised corporate managers. The aim of these managers is to provide specialised solutions to these companies and give them comprehensive financial advice. In addition, the Bank has 132 commercial business managers, a new figure created in 2020, whose task is to manage the Bank's relationship with companies with a turnover of less than €2 million.

Besides its branch network, Ibercaja Banco has 8 business centres for companies located in Zaragoza, Madrid, Barcelona, Valencia, Alicante and the Basque Country. These centres are responsible for the management of customers with a turnover of more than €6 or €10 million, depending on the operating area, and who require a higher degree of specialisation.

Real Estate Corporates

The Group's Real Estate Corporates banking services are focused on a range of products aimed at financing the construction or refurbishment of homes for sale. Once the property has been built, buyers can assume any of the Bank's mortgage loans on advantageous terms.

Institutions, Public Sector and Others

Through the Institutions, Public Sector and Others customer segment, the Group cooperates with public and private entities at national and regional levels, which gives the Group access to this source of business and, at the same time, helps its customers in their dealings with the public authorities.

In the public sector, the Group cooperates with central, regional and local administrations under financing agreements, youth programs and sponsorships. In addition, the Group is actively engaged in the introduction and dissemination of systems for the handling of electronic payments and their administration, and has agreements in place with different entities for the collection and management of taxes, handling of university enrolments and other administrative formalities.

The Group also develops a range of personalized services for private sector groups, including professional associations, members of the civil service, owners' associations and employees of large companies as well as members of condominium activities.

Through Ibercaja Vida the Group manages its life savings insurance and life risk insurance products. As of 30 September 2021, Ibercaja Vida ranked seventh in its sector in Spain in terms of volume of technical provisions, which amounted to €6,845 million as of 30 September 2021 (€7,002 million and €7,379 million as of 31 December 2020 and 2019, respectively) (source: ICEA), and with a market share of 3.54% (source: ICEA). The Group offers two main types of insurance products:

²⁴ Inverco, with the publication of the April investment fund statistics, standardised the criteria for excluding the assets of funds that invest in the manager's own funds (funds of funds). This change led to a decrease in the overall assets of the system and a readjustment of quotas that raised Ibercaja Gestión's share at the end of December 2020 to 5.56%.

Life savings insurance products

Ibercaja Vida offers products aimed at promoting long-term savings by the Group's customers. It offers, among others, systematic savings policies, deferred capital policies, temporary annuities, investment savings plans, insured benefit plans, group insurance policies and unit linked policies.

- (ii) Non-life risk insurance products. The Group offers these products through Ibercaja Mediación, which acts as an insurance broker.

In 2012, the Group reached a strategic agreement with Caja de Seguros Reunidos, Compañía de Seguros y Reaseguros, S.A. ("CASER") for the Group to exclusively market CASER's non-life risk insurance products through its branch network. In order to avoid the potential conflict of interests between Ibercaja Banco and the majority shareholder, the governing body (Patronato) of the Ibercaja Foundation approved the Ibercaja Foundation Protocol (Protocolo de gestión de la participación financiera de la Fundación Bancaria Ibercaja en Ibercaja Banco) in accordance with the provisions of Law 26/2013, of 27 December, on savings banks and banking foundations (Ley 26/2013, de 27 de diciembre, de Cajas de Ahorros y Fundaciones Bancarias) in December 2014. The Ibercaja Foundation's Protocol was amended on 25 April 2019 and approved by the Bank of Spain and it is available at the Issuer's website (www.ibercaja.com) and at Ibercaja Foundation's website (www.fundacionibercaja.es).

The Ibercaja Foundation's Protocol establishes the procedures to avoid potential conflicts of interests as a result of the majority stake held by the Ibercaja Foundation in the share capital of Ibercaja Banco and the criteria to appoint the members of the Board of Directors of Ibercaja Banco.

Claims relating to floor clauses in mortgage agreements with consumers

The Issuer has not marketed any mortgage loan agreements containing "floor clauses" (clauses that set minimum interest rates payable by borrowers, whereby the borrower agrees to pay a minimum interest rate to the lender regardless of the applicable benchmark rate). However, as a result of acquiring Banco

Caja3 in July 2013, the portfolio includes certain mortgage agreements containing floor clauses, which represented approximately 8% of the Issuer's total mortgage agreements by outstanding amount at the time of acquisition.

General overview

In Spain, borrowers have challenged the legal validity of floor clauses in mortgage loan agreements in recent years on various grounds. Spanish courts have rendered various judgments declaring certain floor clauses to be invalid on the basis of lack of transparency at the time such mortgages loans were sold to customers or other reasons.

The Spanish Supreme Court (its first decision on the validity of certain floor clauses on 9 May 2013) has established the criteria to determine which clauses were unfair from a legal standpoint due to the lack of transparency and held that if a floor clause was declared null and void by a valid court order, for lack of transparency or any other reason, the difference between the interest paid under such floor clause and the interest that would have otherwise been payable without such clause, must be reimbursed by the relevant financial institution to the borrower for the period beginning on the date of publication of the Spanish Supreme Court judgment dated 9 May 2013. However, on 21 December 2016, the CJEU declared that the limitation on retroactive application imposed by the Spanish Supreme Court criteria is incompatible with the Directive 93/13 and upheld full retroactive reimbursement in relation to floor clauses.

On 20 January 2017, the Spanish government approved Royal Decree-Law 1/2017, which encourages out-of-court settlements between financial institutions and those borrowers affected by such floor clauses, with the aim of avoiding overloading the Spanish courts with these claims. Financial institutions and consumers are not obliged to reach an agreement and, therefore, affected consumers still have the right to sue financial institutions, including the Issuer. Pursuant to Royal Decree-Law 1/2017, the Group created a new service on 10 February 2017 as part of its Customer Service Care (CSC) to handle the resolution of these claims.

On 12 December 2019, the Spanish Supreme Court issued a ruling declaring that the completion or termination of a mortgage agreement containing floor clauses does not prevent a consumer from challenging the validity of the floor clause and claiming the reimbursement of the amounts paid under such floor clauses.

Situation of Ibercaja

As described above, as a result of acquiring Banco Caja3, the Issuer acquired a portfolio of mortgage loan agreements containing floor clauses, which represented approximately 8% of the Issuer's total mortgage loan agreements portfolio by outstanding amount at the time of acquisition. By the time of acquisition of Banco Caja3, there were several ongoing claims filed by customers arguing the unfairness of such floor clauses and, prior to any relevant decision by the Spanish courts, the Issuer offered a negotiated settlement to such affected customers. As part of these negotiated settlements Ibercaja Banco offered its customers to sign an amendment agreement to the original mortgage loan agreement whereby the Issuer would reduce or delete the floor clause and the customer would undertake not to bring a claim against Ibercaja Banco in the future. Out of the 39,674 mortgage loan agreements containing floor clauses, the Issuer signed 17,984 amendment agreements in accordance with such terms representing 45% of the total mortgage loan agreements containing floor clauses.

As of 30 September 2021, €978 million (16,796 mortgage loans), out of the approximately €1,056 million of outstanding principal amount of 19,543 mortgage loans containing floor clauses, corresponded to mortgage loans amended in negotiated settlements and €78 million (2,747 mortgage loans) corresponded to mortgage loans containing floor clauses which have not been claimed by customers or subject to negotiated settlements but which were still claimable as of such date. With respect to the mortgage loans amended in negotiated settlements, as of 30 September 2021, the Bank has reduced the floor clause of 9,946 mortgage loans amounting to €597 million and deleted the floor clause from 6,850 mortgage loans amounting to €381 million.

As of 30 September 2021, claims with respect to 4,834 mortgage loans amounting to €244 million had been submitted to the Bank's customer service department and were rejected by the Bank taking into consideration the applicable regulations and court criteria in force at the relevant time. Only 7% of these rejection decisions were challenged and are subject to the Spanish courts decision, which are expected to rule based on the Spanish Supreme Court's criteria at the relevant time. As of 30 September 2021, no claim or lawsuit has been filed with respect to 8,026 mortgage loans amounting to €376 million.

Since the Bank was first involved in claims related to the application of floor clauses in 2016 until 30 September 2021, the Bank has made disbursements amounting to €78.9 million in relation to this matter.

On 9 July 2020, the CJEU delivered its judgment in response to a preliminary ruling in which the validity of one of the agreements reached by Ibercaja was analysed. The CJEU affirmed that it is possible for a bank and a customer to sign a novation or settlement agreement on a potentially abusive interest rate floor clause, by virtue of which the customer sees the rate of the floor clause reduced and waives the right to claim against the bank for the alleged unfairness of the initial floor clause, provided that the customer gives his free and informed consent. National courts would have to determine, on a case by case basis, whether the agreement was subject to individual negotiation and, if applicable, whether the transparency requirement was met (i.e. whether the consumer was in a position to understand the economic and legal consequences of the transaction).

On 5 November 2020 the Spanish Supreme Court, despite the fact that in its ruling No 751/2018 dated 11 April 2018 it upheld the validity of one of the Ibercaja's negotiated agreements, considered that the settlement agreements that the Issuer had reached with customers were not individually negotiated and were subject to the transparency test. In this context, the Spanish Supreme Court declared on 5 November 2020, that clauses reducing the rate of the floor clauses were valid as they met the transparency requirement but clauses by virtue of which the customers committed not to bring a claim against the Issuer in the future did not meet it, as they were not limited to claims related to the floor clauses. As a result, since this resolution from the Spanish Supreme Court, Ibercaja was obliged to reimburse customers with the amounts paid under the rate of the floor clauses from the beginning of the original agreement until the amendment but it was established that the floor clauses which were reduced by virtue of the settlement agreements were valid and in place since the date of the relevant settlement agreement. The Issuer understands that if this criteria is followed in the future, the decisions in connection with the outstanding claims related to this matter will be partially favourable to the Group, as it has been happening up until the date of this Prospectus.

As of 30 September 2021, Spanish courts have already issued 987 rulings entirely in favour of the Issuer, out of which 439 are final non-appealable decisions and 548 have been appealed by the customers. In addition, following the new criteria established by the Spanish Supreme Court 1,030 final rulings have been partially favourable to the Issuer. Furthermore, there are 1,314 judicial decisions which were not favourable to the Issuer and appealed by it. The Issuer expects that these appeals and the 454 outstanding claims related to mortgage loans subject to negotiated settlements will be partially favourable to it given the Spanish Supreme Court criteria.

As of 30 September 2021, provisions related to this matter amounted to €14.9 million, which the Issuer believes are sufficient to cover this risk.

Claims arising from the alleged violation of article 1.2 of the abolished Law 57/68

The Issuer is subject to claims for alleged violations of Article 1.2 of the abolished Law 57/1968, on the receipt of sums prior to the construction and sale of properties (Ley 57/1968, de 27 de julio, sobre percibo de cantidades anticipadas en la construcción y venta de viviendas). That article required credit institutions that opened bank accounts for housing developers to deposit sums on account paid by purchasers of housing under development to confirm that those amounts were secured by a bank guarantee or a surety insurance. The intent of the article was to ensure that property buyers would be refunded in the event that the development failed.

As of 31 December 2020, the Issuer had 191 legal proceedings ongoing related to these types of claims from purchasers with no bank guarantee, seeking a total of €11.96 million from the Issuer, of which the Issuer has already paid €4.36 million.

As of 30 September 2021, the Issuer had provisions amounting to €7,834 thousand in relation to these claims, which it believes are sufficient to cover the legal risk. The Issuer expects that any new claims filed from January 2021 will be expired due to the change in the prescription period from 15 years to 5 years.

Claims relating to the invalidity of clauses related to expenses in mortgage agreements with consumers

The Issuer is currently subject to claims arising from the initial declaration by the Spanish courts that clauses contained in certain mortgage agreements entered into with consumers related opening fees (comisión de apertura) taxes and expenses are invalid due to unfair terms.

In its ruling dated 23 January 2019, the Spanish Supreme Court declared the clauses relating to opening fees valid, as it considered that these fees are part of the price paid for a service provided by the relevant bank. Therefore, such fees are considered a key element of the agreement which is not subject to the transparency list. In relation to taxes and expenses, declared that stamp duty taxes (actos jurídicos documentados) must be borne by the borrower, registration fees must be borne by the bank and the notary's fees and management fees (honorarios de la gestoría) must be divided between the bank and the borrower.

On 16 July 2020, the CJEU issued a new ruling on this matter establishing that, in principle, a contractual clause which is declared unfair is null and void and thus has never existed, and national courts shall apply the provisions of national law which regulate the allocation of expenses. The CJEU states that if these provisions result in the borrower being liable for all or part of these expenses, neither Article 6(1) nor Article 7(1) of Directive 93/13 precludes the consumer from not being reimbursed for the costs that such customer had to bear.

Contrary to the Spanish Supreme Court's criteria, in relation to opening fees, in its ruling of 16 July 2020, the CJEU stated that opening fees are not a key element of a mortgage loan agreement and therefore should be subject to the transparency requirements. In the Issuers view, this ruling should not change the Spanish Supreme Court's criteria in relation to opening fees given that such fees are the price paid for a service provided by the bank and they are negotiated in a transparent manner being the customer at all times aware of the economic consequences of such fees. Notwithstanding the above, the Spanish Supreme Court has not expressed its opinion after the CJEU ruling with regards to the opening fee issue.

The Spanish Supreme Court issued a new ruling on 24 July 2020 stating that the CJEU had confirmed the Spanish Supreme Court's position (set out in its ruling dated 23 January 2019) through its decision of 16 July 2020. Furthermore, on 26 October 2020, the Spanish Supreme Court issued a ruling imposing agency fees on the lender.

For mortgage agreements entered into after 16 June 2019, Spanish Act 5/2019, of 15 March, on regulation of real estate loans (Ley 5/2019, de 15 de marzo, reguladora de los contratos de crédito inmobiliario) (the “Real Estate Loans Law”), which entered into force on 16 June 2019, has set out the distribution of the expenses between borrower and lender.

Notwithstanding the above, before the Real Estate Loans Law was passed, there was no legal provision regulating management costs. The Spanish Supreme Court ruling of 26 October 2020, followed the CJEU’s ruling of 16 July 2020 stating that “in the absence of a national rule which applies in case there is a lack of an agreement negotiated among the parties imposing on the borrower the payment of all or part of those expenses, the borrower could not be denied the return of the amounts paid under the clause that has been declared unfair”. The Spanish Supreme Court ruling of 27 January 2021, confirmed this position and also applied this conclusion to the appraisal costs (but only when the Real Estate Loans Law is not applicable, because if it applied, it would allocate appraisal costs to the borrower).

As of 30 September 2021, the Issuer had received a total of 12,239 claims in connection with these clauses, of which 3,084 are still outstanding as of the date of this Prospectus. The average cost of one of these claims, based on historical proceedings, is of €1,000.

As of 30 September 2021, the Issuer had provisions amounting to €24,478 thousand in relation to these claims, which it believes are sufficient to cover this risk.

Claim relating to IRPH

A preliminary ruling was filed on 16 February 2018 before the CJEU that challenges the validity, due to alleged lack of transparency, of mortgage agreements subject to the mortgage benchmark rate in Spain (Indice de Referencia de Préstamos Hipotecarios, “IRPH”).

The subject of the debate was the transparency test set forth in Article 4.2 of Directive 93/13 applicable when the borrower is a consumer. Since the IRPH is related to the price of the contract and it falls within the definition of the essential subject matter of the contract, it must be drafted in plain, intelligible language, so that the consumer is in a position to evaluate, on the basis of clear, intelligible criteria, what the economic consequences derived from such contract are for him.

This preliminary ruling was filed by a Court of First Instance and Investigation several months after the Spanish Supreme Court, on 14 December 2017, established the legality of these contracts.

The Issuer considers that compliance with the transparency test under Directive 93/13 should not be questioned because (i) the Spanish Supreme Court declared the validity of these contracts on 14 December 2017; (ii) the IRPH is an official benchmark rate published and managed by the Bank of Spain, (iii) there is jurisprudence (jurisprudencia) of the CJEU that confirms the transparency of contracts referenced to other official benchmark rates, and there is an APR indicator (annual percentage rate or “TAE” in Spain), that must be mandatorily communicated to consumers, and that allows for the comprehension of the economic burden and the comparison of different mortgage offers, whatever the benchmark rate index applied is.

On 10 September 2019, the advocate general of the CJEU issued its opinion in relation to this matter, according to which (i) Directive 93/13 is applicable to the use of IRPH and (ii) the national judge should be the competent authority to monitor the transparency of the disputed clause and verify, taking into account the set of circumstances that surrounded the signing of the contract at the time it was executed, (a) whether the contract sets out the method for calculating the interest rate transparently, so that the consumer was in a position to evaluate, based on precise, intelligible criteria, the economic consequences that the contract would have for him/her and (b) whether the contract meets all the information requirements provided by the national regulations.

The Advocate General's Opinion did not consider the IRPH or the clause which incorporates it in the relevant loan agreements to be, per se, abusive or null.

The advocate general's opinion does not consider the IRPH or the clause which incorporated it in the relevant mortgage loan agreements to be, per se, abusive or void.

On 3 March 2020, the CJEU resolved the aforementioned preliminary ruling and ruled that national courts must verify the transparency of IRPH interest rate clauses in mortgage loan agreements, stating that IRPH interest rate clauses are deemed to be transparent if they are couched in a manner that is understandable to a reasonably observant and circumspect consumer and have been reported in accordance with national law. The CJEU also stated that in the event that the national court concludes that the clause is void because of lack of transparency, it is possible for the national court to replace the original index with a legal index in the absence of an agreement to the contrary by the parties to the contract, provided that the mortgage loan contract could not survive if the unfair term was removed and that the annulment of the contract in its entirety would leave the consumer exposed to particularly harmful consequences.

After this ruling, various Spanish regional courts have maintained different criteria. Several courts considered interest rate clauses including IRPH to be transparent and, therefore, not abusive, and others, conversely, considered them to be non-transparent, declaring such clauses as abusive, replacing the IRPH with the Euribor or with the credit institution's IRPH.

In November 2020, the Spanish Supreme Court issued five rulings related to the IRPH. In four of such cases, the Spanish Supreme Court ruled in favour of the credit institutions concluding that, although the IRPH clause is not transparent because the customer was not informed of the past performance of the index, such clause is to be deemed non-abusive for the following reasons: (i) IRPH clauses may not be easily rigged in favour of the lender (in fact, IRPH is controlled by the public administration, whereas Euribor is calculated by a private entity), (ii) a significant imbalance to the consumer's detriment cannot be derived from the mere evolution of the index during the duration of the loan, even if unfavourable to the consumer, and (iii) the use of an official index does not contravene the good faith principle.

Thus, following the last rulings by the Spanish Supreme Court, as of the date of this Prospectus, the Issuer believes that the risk of the application of the IRPH being declared abusive is lower than in the past and is limited to potential decisions by certain Spanish courts at a lower level (although there is currently a further Supreme Court ruling pending as of the date of this Prospectus). However, these rulings have been controversial and certain courts at a lower level have instead decided not to follow the Spanish Supreme Court case law, declaring the IRPH clause void and replacing it with Euribor and ordering the restitution of the amounts paid in excess after such replacement. In addition, other Spanish regional courts have presented questions to the CJEU for a preliminary ruling on whether the latest rulings issued by the Supreme Court regarding IRPH contravene European law.

Overview of financial information

Changes to the accounting standards

The Group prepares its financial statements in accordance with IFRS-EU. The accounting standard setters and other regulatory bodies periodically change the financial accounting and reporting standards that govern the preparation of the Group's financial statements. In recent years the Group has implemented several new accounting standards and interpretations and amendments thereto, including IFRS 16, as discussed below.

IFRS 16

Beginning on 1 January 2019, the Group implemented the requirements of IFRS 16 “Leases”. As permitted by IFRS 16, such requirements have been implemented by adjusting the Group’s opening balance sheet at the date of first-time application (1 January 2019). IFRS 16 establishes the principles for the recognition, measurement, presentation and disclosure of leases in order to ensure that both, lessee and lessor, provide the relevant information to present a true and fair view of lease transactions. IFRS 16 provides a single accounting model for lessees that requires them to recognise right-of-use assets and lease liabilities under existing leases (unless the lease term is 12 months or less or the value of the underlying asset is low).

As permitted by IFRS 16, the Group decided not to determine whether a contract is or contains a lease under the new definition on first-time application, and therefore the Group applies IFRS 16 only to contracts that were identified as leases prior to 1 January 2019. The Group has estimated the impact of IFRS 16 on its fully-loaded CET1 ratio to be 4 basis points, and the Group has recognised right-of-use assets amounting to approximately €62 million and lease liabilities for an equal amount. This recognition is mainly due to the requirement to recognise right-of-use assets and the lease liability arising from all the leases in effect on the date of first-time application.

CAPITAL, LIQUIDITY AND FUNDING REQUIREMENTS AND LOSS ABSORBING POWERS

The regulatory framework regarding the solvency of credit entities (the “CRD IV”) is established by the CRR, Directive 2013/36/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013 on access to the activity of credit institutions and the prudential supervision of credit institutions and investment firms, amending Directive 2002/87/EC and repealing Directives 2006/48/EC and 2006/49/EC (the “CRD IV Directive”) and any CRD IV Implementing Measures (as defined in the Conditions). The implementation of the CRD IV Directive in Spain has largely taken place through Royal Decree-Law 14/2013, of 29 November, on urgent measures to adapt Spanish law to EU regulations on the subject of supervision and solvency of financial entities, Law 10/2014, Royal Decree 84/2015, of 13 February, which implements Law 10/2014 (“Royal Decree 84/2015”) and Bank of Spain Circulars 2/2014, of 31 January, and 2/2016, of 2 February, to credit entities, on supervision and solvency, which completes the adaptation of Spanish law to CRR and the CRD IV Directive (the “Bank of Spain Circular 2/2016”).

Directive 2014/59/EU, of 15 May, establishing a framework for the recovery and resolution of credit institutions and investment firms (the “BRRD”), that has been implemented in Spain through Law 11/2015 and Royal Decree 1012/2015, of 6 November, developing Law 11/2015 (“Royal Decree 1012/2015”), also establishes certain requirements in terms of a minimum level of own funds and eligible liabilities in relation to total liabilities and own funds (known as “MREL”).

On 27 June 2019, a comprehensive package of reforms amending CRR, the CRD IV Directive, BRRD and Regulation (EU) No 806/2014 (the “SRM Regulation”) came into force: (i) Directive (EU) 2019/878 of the European Parliament and of the Council, of 20 May 2019 (as amended, replaced or supplemented from time to time, the “CRD V Directive”) amending the CRD IV Directive, (ii) Directive (EU) 2019/879 of the European Parliament and of the European Council of 20 May 2019 (as amended, replaced or supplemented from time to time, “BRRD II”) amending, among others, the BRRD as regards the loss-absorbing and recapitalisation capacity of credit institutions and investment firms, (iii) Regulation (EU) 2019/876 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 20 May 2019 (as amended, replaced or supplemented from time to time, “CRR II”) amending, among other things, the CRR as regards the leverage ratio, the net stable funding ratio, requirements for own funds and eligible liabilities, counterparty credit risk, market risk, exposures to central counterparties, exposures to collective investment undertakings, large exposures, and reporting and disclosure requirements, and (iv) Regulation (EU) 2019/877 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 20 May 2019 (as amended, replaced or supplemented from time to time, the “SRM Regulation II”) amending the SRM Regulation as regards the loss-absorbing and recapitalisation capacity of credit institutions and investment firms (the CRD V Directive, BRRD II, CRR II and the SRM Regulation II, the “EU Banking Reforms”). Most of the provisions of the EU Banking Reforms have started to apply. CRD V Directive and BRRD II have been partially implemented into Spanish law through RDL 7/2021 which has amended, among others, Law 10/2014 and Law 11/2015. Despite the fact that RDL 7/2021 is generally enforceable since 29 April 2021, the Spanish Parliament decided on 19 May 2021 to process it as a Law and so RDL 7/2021 provisions may be subject to changes. Furthermore, Royal Decree 970/2021, of 8 November, generally in force since 10 November 2021, amended Royal Decree 84/2015 to continue the implementation into Spanish law of CRD V Directive but full implementation of CRD V Directive still requires approval of the relevant amendments to other secondary Spanish regulations (i.e. Bank of Spain circulars) and Royal Decree 1041/2021, generally in force since 24 November 2021, amended Royal Decree 1012/2015 and completed the implementation of BRRD II into Spanish law.

In reaction to the COVID-19 outbreak, in June 2020 the European Parliament and the Council of the EU adopted a banking package that provides targeted and exceptional legislative changes to CRR II intended to allow credit institutions to fully play their role in managing the economic shock that stems from the COVID-19 pandemic by fostering credit flows (the “Quick Fix”).

Moreover, on 26 January 2021, the European Commission launched a targeted public consultation on technical aspects on a new review of BRRD, the SRM Regulation, and Directive 2014/49/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council of 16 April 2014 on deposit guarantee schemes. The consultation was open until 20 April 2021 and was split into two main sections: a section covering the general objectives of the review focus, and a section seeking technical feedback on stakeholders experience with the current framework and the need for changes in the future framework, notably on (i) resolution, liquidation and other available measures to handle banking crises, (ii) level of harmonisation of creditor hierarchy in the EU and impact on no creditor worse-off principle, and (iii) depositor insurance. Legislative proposals for SRM Regulation III and DGSD II are to be tabled on the fourth quarter of 2021.

Capital requirements

Under CRD IV, the Group is required to hold a minimum amount of regulatory capital of 8% of RWAs of which at least 4.5% must be CET1 capital and at least 6% must be Tier 1 capital (together, the “minimum “Pillar 1” capital requirements”).

Moreover, Article 104 of CRD IV Directive, as implemented by Articles 68 of Law 10/2014 and 94 of Royal Decree 84/2015, also contemplates that in addition to the minimum “Pillar 1” capital requirements, the supervisory authorities may require further capital to cover other risks. This may result in the imposition of further CET1, Tier 1 and total capital requirements on Ibercaja Banco and the Group pursuant to this “Pillar 2” framework. Following the introduction of the SSM, the ECB is in charge of assessing additional “Pillar 2” capital requirements (“P2R”) through the SREP assessments to be carried out at least on an annual basis (accordingly requirements may change from year to year). CRD V Directive clarifies that P2R should be set in relation to the specific situation of an institution excluding macroprudential or systemic risks, but including the risks incurred by individual institutions due to their activities (including those reflecting the impact of certain economic and market developments on the risk profile of an individual institution) and it also allows the P2R to be partially covered with AT1 and Tier 2 instruments.

In addition to the minimum “Pillar 1” capital requirements and the P2R, credit institutions must comply with the “combined buffer requirement” set out in the CRD IV Directive as implemented in Spain. The “combined buffer requirement” has introduced up to five new capital buffers to be satisfied with CET1 capital: (i) the capital conservation buffer of 2.5% of RWAs; (ii) the global systemically important institutions (“G-SII”) buffer, which shall be not less than 1% of RWAs; (iii) the institution-specific counter-cyclical capital buffer (consisting of the weighted average of the counter-cyclical capital buffer rates that apply in the jurisdictions where the relevant credit exposures are located), which may be as much as 2.5% of RWAs (or higher pursuant to the competent authority); (iv) the other systemically important institutions (“O-SII”) buffer, which may be as much as 3% of RWAs; and (v) the systemic risk buffer to prevent systemic or macro prudential risks (to be set by the Bank of Spain).

The Bank has not been classified as G-SII or as O-SII by the Financial Stability Board (the “FSB”) nor by any competent authority so, unless otherwise indicated by the FSB or by the Bank of Spain in the future, it is not required to maintain the G-SII buffer or the O-SII buffer. In addition, the Bank of Spain agreed to maintain the countercyclical capital buffer applicable to credit exposures in Spain at 0% for the fourth quarter of 2021 (requirements will be revised each quarter). Some or all of the other buffers may also apply to the Bank from time to time as determined by the Bank of Spain, the ECB or any other competent authority.

As set out in the “Opinion of the European Banking Authority on the interaction of “Pillar 1”, “Pillar 2” and combined buffer requirements and restrictions on distributions” published on 16 December 2015, competent authorities should ensure that the CET1 capital to be taken into account in determining the CET1 capital available to meet the “combined buffer requirement” for the purposes of the Maximum Distributable Amount (as defined below) calculation is limited to the amount not used to meet the minimum “Pillar 1” capital requirements and the P2R of the institution and, accordingly, the “combined buffer requirement” is in addition to the minimum “Pillar 1” capital requirement and to the P2R, and therefore it would be the first layer of capital to be eroded pursuant to the applicable stacking order. CRD V Directive clarifies that P2R should be positioned in the relevant stacking order of own funds requirements above the minimum “Pillar 1” capital requirements and below the “combined buffer requirement” or the leverage ratio buffer requirement, as relevant. In addition, CRD V Directive also clarifies that P2R should be set in relation to the specific situation of an institution excluding macroprudential or systemic risks, but including the risks incurred by individual institutions due to their activities (including those reflecting the impact of certain economic and market developments on the risk profile of an individual institution).

According to Article 48 of Law 10/2014, Article 73 of Royal Decree 84/2015 and Rule 24 of Bank of Spain Circular 2/2016, those entities failing to meet the “combined buffer requirement” or making a distribution in connection with CET1 capital to an extent that would decrease its CET1 capital to a level where the “combined buffer requirement” is no longer met will be subject to restrictions on (i) distributions relating to CET1 capital, (ii) payments in respect of variable remuneration or discretionary pension revenues and (iii) distributions relating to Additional Tier 1 Instruments, until the maximum distributable amount calculated according to CRD IV (i.e., the firm’s “distributable items”, calculated in accordance with CRD IV, multiplied by a factor dependent on the extent of the shortfall in CET1 capital) (the “Maximum Distributable Amount”) has been calculated and communicated to the competent supervisor. Thereafter, any such distributions or payments will be subject to such Maximum Distributable Amount for entities (a) not meeting the “combined buffer requirement” or (b) in relation to which the Bank of Spain has adopted any of the measures set forth in Article 68.2 of Law 10/2014 aimed at strengthening own funds or limiting or prohibiting the distribution of dividends.

As communicated by the European Banking Authority on 1 July 2016, and included in CRD V Directive, in addition to the minimum “Pillar 1” capital requirements, the P2R and the “combined buffer requirements”, the supervisor can also set a “Pillar 2” capital guidance (“P2G”). Thus, SREP decisions of 2016 onwards differentiate between P2R and P2G. While P2R are binding requirements and breaches can have direct legal consequences for the banks, P2G is not directly binding and a failure to meet it does not automatically trigger legal action, even though the ECB expects banks to meet P2G. Under the EU Banking Reforms, the P2G is not relevant for the purposes of triggering the automatic restriction of the distribution and calculation of the Maximum Distributable Amount. However, CRD V Directive provides that when an institution repeatedly fails to meet the P2G, the competent authority should be entitled to take supervisory measures and, where appropriate, to impose additional own funds requirements.

In reaction to the COVID-19 outbreak and in addition to the Quick Fix, in March 2020 the ECB announced temporary measures expected to provide capital relief to banks in support of the economy. These measures include the permission to (i) operate temporarily below the level of capital defined by P2G, the “capital conservation buffer” and the LCR and (ii) use capital instruments that do not qualify as CET1 (for example Additional Tier 1 instruments and Tier 2 instruments) to partially meet P2R (this was already foreseen in the CRD V Directive, but before the CRD V Directive and the referred decisions of the ECB in March 2020, P2R was to be covered with CET1 in its entirety).

Solo Waiver

Solvency requirements are applied to the Group on a consolidated basis, as the application of prudential requirements on an individual basis has been waived from the Bank in accordance with Article 7 of the CRR.

Since 31 March 2016, Ibercaja Banco has been waived from the application of prudential requirements on an individual basis in accordance with article 7 of CRR (the “Solo Waiver”). Such waiver was requested by Ibercaja Banco to the competent supervisor in accordance with the applicable regulations, and based on the following reasons: (a) that there was no current or foreseen material, practical or legal impediment to the prompt transfer of own funds or repayment of liabilities to the parent company (i.e. Ibercaja Banco) and (b) the procedures to measure, evaluate and control the risks for the supervision of the Group were referred to Ibercaja Banco as the parent company.

The Solo Waiver granted by the competent supervisor exempted Ibercaja Banco from compliance, on an individual basis, with the equity requirements and limits for great risks. Consequently, for the same reasons described above, Ibercaja Banco is exempted from the application of prudential requirements on an individual basis in accordance with Article 7 of CRR. As a result, Ibercaja Banco does not have to comply with, nor calculate nor publish, any capital requirements or ratios on an individual basis for so long as this derogation is in place, having the obligation to calculate and comply with capital requirements only at Group level.

As of the date of this Prospectus, such waiver is still in force and therefore the prudential requirements under CRR are only complied with by the Group on a consolidated basis (i.e. at Group level). As far as the Bank is aware, the regulator is not planning to review the Solo Waiver in the short term.

ECB 2021 SREP communication

In November 2019, the Bank received the decisions of the ECB regarding minimum capital requirements for 2020 following the outcomes of the most recent SREP. In April 2020, the ECB notified the Bank its decision to modify the prudential requirements established as part of the SREP of November 2019, which are still in place for 2021. The details of these capital requirements for 2021 are described below:

	CET1	Total capital
Pillar 1	4.50%	8.00%
Pillar 2 (P2R).....	1.125%	2.00%
Capital conservation buffer.....	2.50%	2.50%
Other buffers.....	0.00%	0.00%
Total requirements	8.125%	12.50%

The table below sets out the Group's capital position as of 30 September 2021, 31 December 2020 and 2019:

	30 September 2021		31 December 2020		31 December 2019
	Phased in	Fully loaded	Phased in	Fully loaded	Phased in	Fully loaded
CET1 ratio.....	13.58%	12.81%	13.62%	12.59%	12.27%	11.35%
Tier 1 ratio.....	15.51%	14.74%	15.53%	14.51%	13.99%	13.07%
Total capital ratio.....	18.26%	17.50%	18.27%	17.26%	16.36%	15.45%

As of 30 September 2021, the RWAs (phased in) of the Group amounted to €18,165,265 thousand (€18,248,449 thousand and €20,362,850 thousand as of 31 December 2020 and 2019, respectively). As of 30 September 2021, the RWAs density^{APM} was 31.23% (31.25% and 36.74% as of 31 December 2020 and 2019, respectively).

See the risk factor “Increasingly onerous capital requirements constitute one of the Group's main regulatory challenges” for the risks associated to the failure by the Group to comply with its regulatory capital requirements.

Leverage ratio

In addition to the above, Article 429 of the CRR requires institutions to calculate their leverage ratio (“LR”) in accordance with the methodology laid down in that article. The EU Banking Reforms contain a binding 3% Tier 1 LR requirement, that has been added to the own funds requirements in Article 92 of the CRR, and which institutions must meet in addition to their risk-based requirements.

The table below sets out the Group’s LRs as of 30 September 2021, 31 December 2020 and 2019:

	30 September 2021		31 December 2020		31 December 2019
	Phased in	Fully loaded	Phased in	Fully loaded	Phased in	Fully loaded
Leverage ratio.....	6.08%	5.78%	6.26%	5.85%	5.85%	5.48%

MREL requirements

In addition to the minimum capital requirements under CRD IV, the BRRD regime prescribes that banks shall hold a minimum level of own funds and eligible liabilities. The MREL shall be calculated as the amount of own funds and eligible liabilities and expressed as a percentage of the total liabilities and own funds of the institution (pursuant to the BRRD II, it shall be expressed as a percentage of the total risk exposure amount or the total exposure measure of the institution, calculated in each case in accordance with CRR). The level of capital and eligible liabilities required under MREL is set by the resolution authority for each bank (and/or group) based on the resolution plan and other criteria. The resolution authority for the Bank is the SRB. Eligible liabilities may be senior or subordinated liabilities, provided, among other requirements, that they have a remaining maturity of at least one year and, if governed by a non-EU law, they must be able to be written down or converted under that law (including through contractual provisions).

The EU Banking Reforms further include, as part of MREL, a new subordination requirement of eligible instruments for G-SIIs and “top tier” banks involving a minimum “Pillar 1” subordination requirement and an institution specific “Pillar 2” subordination requirement. This “Pillar 1” subordination requirement shall be satisfied with own funds and other eligible MREL instruments (which MREL instruments may not for these purposes be senior debt instruments and only MREL instruments constituting “non-preferred” senior debt under the new insolvency hierarchy introduced into Spain will be eligible for compliance with the subordination requirement). Resolution authorities may also impose “Pillar 2” subordination requirements to institutions not constituting G-SIIs or “top tier” banks, which would be determined on a case-by-case basis but subject to a minimum level equal to the lower of 8% of a bank’s total liabilities and own funds and 27% of its RWAs.

In addition, a new Article 16.a) of the BRRD, as recently amended by BRRD II, better clarifies the stacking order between the “combined buffer requirement” and the MREL requirement. Pursuant to this new provision, a resolution authority will have the power to prohibit an entity from distributing more than the “maximum distributable amount” for own funds and eligible liabilities (calculated in accordance with the new Article 16.a)(4) of the BRRD) (the “MREL-Maximum Distributable Amount Provision”) through distribution of dividends, variable remuneration and payments to holders of Additional Tier 1 Instruments, where it meets the “combined buffer requirement” but fails to meet that “combined buffer requirement” when considered in addition to the MREL requirements. The referred Article 16.a) of the BRRD includes a potential nine-month grace period whereby the resolution authority will assess on a monthly basis whether to exercise its powers under the MREL-Maximum Distributable Amount Provision before such resolution authority is compelled to exercise its power under the provisions (subject to certain limited exceptions).

In March 2021, the Bank received the formal communication from the Bank of Spain regarding the MREL requirement, as determined by the SRB. As of the date of this prospectus, regulation establishes 1 January 2024 as a deadline to comply with the requirements set out below, with an interim requirement that must be met by 1 January 2022, these requirements being expressed as a percentage of both RWAs and leverage ratio. In accordance with such communication, the Bank has been required to reach, by 1 January 2022 an amount of own funds and eligible liabilities on a consolidated basis equal to 15.38% of RWAs and 5.24% in terms of MREL leverage ratio. This requirement would be equal to 18.42% of the Group's consolidated RWAs as of 1 January 2024 (5.24% in terms of MREL leverage ratio). As of 30 June 2021, the Group had a MREL position of 18.13% in terms of RWAs (including the CET1 dedicated to comply with the combined buffer requirement) and 7.08% in terms of MREL leverage ratio²⁶, both of which are above the requirements for 2022. The Group estimates its MREL issuance needs towards the requirement for 2024 mentioned above, as of the date of this Prospectus, amount to approximately €0.7-0.8 billion. With the issuance of the Notes the Group will reach a MREL position of 18.41% in terms of RWAs (including the CET1 dedicated to comply with the combined buffer requirement) and 7.19% in terms of MREL leverage ratio.

See the risk factor “Increasingly onerous capital requirements constitute one of the Group's main regulatory challenges” for the risks associated to the failure by the Group to comply with its MREL minimum requirement.

Liquidity requirements

The Group should also comply with the LCR requirements provided in CRR. The LCR is the short-term indicator which expresses the ratio between the amount of available assets readily monetizable (cash and the readily liquidable securities held by the Group) and the net cash imbalance accumulated over a 30-day liquidity stress period. It is a quantitative liquidity standard designed to ensure that banks have sufficient high-quality liquid assets to cover expected net cash outflows over a 30-day liquidity stress period. Entities to which this standard applies (including the Group) must comply with 100% of the applicable LCR requirement. The LCR of the Group (excluding Ibercaja Vida) was 443.1% as of 30 September 2021 (468.1% and 307.1% as of 31 December 2020 and 2019, respectively).

The BCBS' NSFR is the 12-month structural liquidity indicator which corresponds to the ratio between the available amount of stable funding and the statutory amount of stable funding. It has been developed to provide a sustainable maturity structure of assets and liabilities such that banks maintain a stable funding profile in relation to their on- and off-balance sheet activities that reduces the likelihood that disruptions to a bank's regular sources of funding will erode its liquidity position in a way that could increase the risk of its failure. The EU Banking Reforms contain the implementation of the BCBS standard on NSFR introducing some adjustments. The NSFR of the Group (excluding Ibercaja Vida) was 150.5% as of 30 September 2021 (151.5% and 131.4% as of 31 December 2020 and 2019, respectively).

Prudential treatment of NPLs

On 15 March 2018, the ECB published its supervisory expectations on prudent levels of provisions for NPLs. This was published as an addendum (the “Addendum”) to the ECB's guidance to banks on non-performing loans published on 20 March 2017 and clarified the ECB's supervisory expectations regarding the identification, management, measurement and write-off of NPLs. The ECB stated that the Addendum set out what it deems to be a prudent treatment of NPLs with the aim of avoiding an excessive build-up of non-covered aged NPLs on banks' balance sheets in the future, which would require supervisory measures. The Addendum is non-binding but serves as the basis for the supervisory dialogue between the significant banks and ECB banking supervision. The ECB will assess any differences between banks' practices and the prudential provisioning expectations laid out in the Addendum at least annually. During the supervisory dialogue, the ECB will discuss with each bank divergences from the prudential provisioning expectations laid out in the addendum.

²⁶ This is the last public reporting of the Bank's MREL position, reported in the Bank's interim financial report for the six months ended 30 June 2021.

After this dialogue and taking into account the bank's specific situation, ECB Banking Supervision will decide, on a case-by-case basis, whether and which supervisory measures are appropriate. The result of this dialogue will be incorporated, for the first time, in the 2021 SREP.

In addition, as part of the EU Commission's package of measures aimed at addressing the risks related to high levels of NPLs in Europe, Regulation 2019/630 amends CRR as regards minimum loss coverage for NPEs introduced a clear set of conditions for the classification of NPEs and established clear criteria on the determination of non-performing exposures, the concept of forbearance measures, deduction for non-performing exposures and treatment of expected loss amounts.

In connection with the measures adopted in reaction to the COVID-19 outbreak and more specifically in connection with the measures announced by the ECB to ensure that its directly supervised banks can continue to fulfil their role to fund households and corporations, additional measures introducing supervisory flexibility regarding the treatment of NPLs were established, in particular to allow banks to fully benefit from guarantees and moratoriums put in place by public authorities to tackle the current distress. These measures affected the prudential framework in relation to the classification of loans in default, the classification of exposures under the definition of forbearance or as defaulted under distressed restructuring, and their accounting treatment. In particular, the EBA has clarified that generalised payment delays due to legislative initiatives and addressed to all borrowers do not lead to any automatic classification in default, forbore or unlikeliness to pay (individual assessments of the likeliness to pay should be prioritized) and has clarified the requirements for public and private moratoria, which if fulfilled, are expected to help avoid the classification of exposures under the definition of forbearance or as defaulted under distressed restructuring.

Loss absorbing powers by the Relevant Resolution Authority under Law 11/2015 and the SRM Regulation

The BRRD (which has been implemented in Spain through Law 11/2015 and Royal Decree 1012/2015) is designed to provide authorities with a credible set of tools to intervene sufficiently early and quickly in unsound or failing credit institutions or investment firms (each an “institution”) so as to ensure the continuity of the institution's critical financial and economic functions, while minimising the impact of an institution's failure on the economy and financial system.

In accordance with Article 20 of Law 11/2015, an institution will be considered as failing or likely to fail in any of the following circumstances: (i) it is, or is likely in the near future to be, in significant breach of its solvency or any other requirements necessary for maintaining its authorisation; (ii) its assets are, or are likely in the near future to be, less than its liabilities; (iii) it is, or is likely in the near future to be, unable to pay its debts as they fall due; or (iv) it requires extraordinary public financial support (except in limited circumstances). The determination that an institution is no longer viable may depend on a number of factors which may be outside of that institution's control.

As provided in the BRRD, Law 11/2015 contains four resolution tools and powers which may be used alone or in combination where the FROB, the SRB established pursuant to the SRM Regulation, as the case may be and according to Law 11/2015, the Bank of Spain or the CNMV, or any other entity with the authority to exercise any such tools and powers from time to time (each, a “Relevant Resolution Authority”) as appropriate, considers that (a) an institution is failing or likely to fail, (b) there is no reasonable prospect that any alternative private sector measures would prevent the failure of such institution within a reasonable timeframe, and (c) a resolution action is in the public interest.

The four resolution tools are: (i) sale of business (which enables the Relevant Resolution Authority to direct the sale of the institution or the whole or part of its business on commercial terms); (ii) bridge institution (which enables the Relevant Resolution Authority to transfer all or part of the business of the institution to a “bridge institution” (an entity created for this purpose that is wholly or partially in public control)); (iii) asset separation

(which enables the Relevant Resolution Authority to transfer certain categories of assets to one or more publicly owned asset management vehicles to allow them to be managed with a view to maximising their value through eventual sale or orderly wind-down (this can be used together with another resolution tool only)); and (iv) bail-in. The bail-in includes the ability of the Relevant Resolution Authority to write down (including to zero) and/or to convert into equity or other securities or obligations (which equity, securities and obligations could also be subject to any future application of the bail-in) certain unsecured debt claims and subordinated obligations (including capital instruments such as the Notes).

The “Spanish Bail-in Power” is any write down, conversion, transfer, modification, or suspension power existing from time to time under, and exercised in compliance with any laws, regulations, rules or requirements in effect in Spain, relating to the transposition of the BRRD, as amended from time to time, including, but not limited to (i) Law 11/2015, as amended from time to time, (ii) Royal Decree 1012/2015, as amended from time to time, (iii) the SRM Regulation, as amended from time to time, and (iv) any other instruments, rules or standards made in connection with either (i), (ii) or (iii), pursuant to which any obligation of an institution can be reduced, cancelled, modified, or converted into shares, other securities, or other obligations of such institution or any other person (or suspended for a temporary period).

In accordance with Article 48 of Law 11/2015 (and subject to any exclusions that may be applied by the Relevant Resolution Authority under Article 43 of Law 11/2015), in the case of any application of the Spanish Bail-in Power to absorb losses and cover the amount of the recapitalisation, the sequence of any resulting write down or conversion shall be as follows: (i) CET1 items; (ii) the principal amount of Additional Tier 1 Instruments; (iii) the principal amount of Tier 2 instruments; (iv) the principal amount of other subordinated claims that do not qualify as AT1 capital or Tier 2 capital and (v) the principal or outstanding amount of “bail-inable liabilities” (pasivos susceptibles de recapitalización interna) (including the Notes) in accordance with the hierarchy of claims in normal insolvency proceedings (with ordinary claims subject to the Spanish Bail-in Power after any subordinated claims against the Bank but before claims against the insolvency estate and claims with special privilege or general privilege against the Bank). The order of this sequence is consistent with the hierarchy of claims in normal insolvency proceedings prescribed by the Insolvency Law read in conjunction with Additional Provision 14 of Law 11/2015.

In addition to the Spanish Bail-in Power, the BRRD, Article 38 Law 11/2015 and the SRM Regulation provide for the Relevant Resolution Authority to have the further power to permanently write down or convert into equity capital instruments and certain internal eligible liabilities, at the point of non-viability (the “Non-Viability Loss Absorption”) of an institution or a group. The point of non-viability of an institution is the point at which the Relevant Resolution Authority determines that the institution meets the conditions for resolution or that it will no longer be viable unless the relevant capital instruments are written down or converted into equity or extraordinary public support is to be provided and without such support the Relevant Resolution Authority determines that the institution would no longer be viable. The point of non-viability of a group is the point at which the group infringes or there are objective elements to support a determination that the group, in the near future, will infringe its consolidated solvency requirements in a way that would justify action by the Relevant Resolution Authority in accordance with Article 38.3 of Law 11/2015. Non-Viability Loss Absorption may be imposed prior to or in combination with any exercise of any other Spanish Bail-in Power or any other resolution tool or power (where the conditions for resolution referred to above are met).

In accordance with Article 64.1(i) of Law 11/2015, the FROB has also the power to alter the amount of interest payable under debt instruments and other bail-inable liabilities of institutions subject to resolution proceedings and the date on which the interest becomes payable under the debt instrument (including the power to suspend payment for a temporary period).

TAXATION

The following is a general description of certain Spanish tax considerations relating to the Notes. It does not purport to be a complete analysis of all tax considerations relating to the Notes whether in those countries or elsewhere. Prospective purchasers of Notes should consult their own tax advisers as to the consequences under the tax laws of the country of which they are resident for tax purposes and the tax laws of Spain of acquiring, holding and disposing of Notes and receiving payments of interest, principal and/or other amounts under the Notes. This summary is based upon the law as in effect on the date of this Prospectus and is subject to any change in law that may take effect after such date.

Also investors should note that the appointment by an investor in Notes, or any person through which an investor holds Notes, of a custodian, collection agent or similar person in relation to such Notes in any jurisdiction may have tax implications. Investors should consult their own tax advisers in relation to the tax consequences for them of any such appointment.

Spanish tax considerations

The following summary describes the main Spanish tax implications arising in connection with the acquisition and holding of the Notes by individuals or entities who are the beneficial owners of the Notes. The information provided below does not purport to be a complete analysis of the tax law and practice currently applicable in Spain, and it is not intended to be, nor should it be construed to be, legal or tax advice, and does not address all the tax consequences applicable to all categories of investors, some of which (such as look through entities or Holders by reason of employment) may be subject to special rules.

All the tax consequences described in this section are based on the general assumption that the Notes are initially registered for clearance and settlement in Iberclear.

Prospective purchasers of the Notes should consult their own tax advisers as to the tax consequences, including those under the tax laws of the country of which they are resident, of purchasing, owning and disposing of the Notes.

This information has been prepared in accordance with the following Spanish tax legislation in force at the date of this Prospectus:

- (a) of general application, Additional Provision One of Law 10/2014, as well as Royal Decree 1065/2007, of 27 July, approving the General Regulations of the tax inspection and management procedures and developing the common rules of the procedures to apply taxes, as amended by Royal Decree 1145/2011 of 29 July (“Royal Decree 1065/2007”);
- (b) for individuals resident for tax purposes in Spain who are personal income tax (“PIT”) taxpayers, Law 35/2006, of 28 November, on the PIT and on the partial amendment of the Corporate Income Tax Law, Non-Resident Income Tax Law and Wealth Tax Law, as amended (the “PIT Law”), and Royal Decree 439/2007, of 30 March, approving the PIT Regulations, as amended (the “PIT Regulations”), along with Law 19/1991, of 6 June, on Wealth Tax, as amended, and Law 29/1987, of 18 December, on Inheritance and Gift Tax, as amended;
- (c) for legal entities resident for tax purposes in Spain which are CIT taxpayers, the CIT Act, and Royal Decree 634/2015, of 10 July, promulgating the CIT Regulations, as amended (the “CIT Regulations”); and
- (d) for individuals and entities who are not resident for tax purposes in Spain which are Non-Resident Income Tax (“NRIT”) taxpayers, Royal Legislative Decree 5/2004, of 5 March, promulgating the Consolidated Text of the NRIT Law, as amended (“NRIT Law”) and Royal Decree 1776/2004, of 30

July, promulgating the NRIT Regulations, as amended (“NRIT Regulations”) along with Law 19/1991, of 6 June, on Wealth Tax, as amended and Law 29/1987, of 18 December, on Inheritance and Gift Tax, as amended.

Tax treatment of the Notes

Indirect taxation

Whatever the nature and residence of the Holder, the acquisition and transfer of Notes will be exempt from indirect taxes in Spain, i.e. exempt from Transfer Tax and Stamp Duty, in accordance with the Consolidated Text of such tax promulgated by Royal Legislative Decree 1/1993, dated 24 September 1993, exempt from Value Added Tax, in accordance with Law 37/1992, dated 28 December 1992 regulating such tax, and exempt from Spanish Financial Transaction Tax, in accordance with Law 5/2020, of 15 October, regulating such tax.

Ibercaja Banco understands that the Notes should be deemed as financial assets with an explicit yield for Spanish tax purposes, according to Article 91 of the PIT Regulations and Article 63 of the CIT Regulations.

Direct taxation

(a) Individuals with tax residency in Spain

Personal Income Tax (Impuesto sobre la Renta de las Personas Físicas)

Both interest periodically received and income derived from the transfer, redemption or repayment of the Notes constitute a return on investment obtained from the transfer of own capital to third parties in accordance with the provisions of Section 25.2 of the PIT Law, and must be included in each investor’s savings income and taxed at the tax rate applicable from time to time, currently 19% for taxable income up to €6,000; 21% for taxable income between €6,000.01 and €50,000; 23% for taxable income between €50,000.01; and €200,000 and 26% for taxable income exceeding €200,000.

Income from the transfer of the Notes is computed as the difference between their transfer value and their acquisition or subscription value. Also, ancillary acquisition and disposal charges are taken into account, insofar as adequately evidenced, in calculating the income.

Negative income derived from the transfer of the Notes, in the event that the investor had acquired other homogeneous securities within the two months prior or subsequent to such transfer or exchange, shall be included in his or her PIT base as and when the remaining homogeneous securities are transferred.

When calculating the net income, expenses related to the management and deposit of the Notes will be deductible, excluding those pertaining to discretionary or individual portfolio management.

A (current) 19% withholding on account of PIT will be imposed by Ibercaja Banco on interest payments as well as on income derived from the redemption or repayment of the Notes, by individual investors subject to PIT.

However, income derived from the transfer of the Notes should not be subject to withholding on account of PIT provided that the Notes are:

- (iii) registered by way of book entries; and
- (iv) negotiated in a Spanish official secondary market (mercado secundario oficial), such as AIAF.

Notwithstanding the above, 19% withholding tax shall apply on the part of the transfer price that corresponds to the accrued interest when the transfer of the Notes takes place within the 30-day period prior to the moment in which such interest is due when the following requirements are fulfilled:

- (v) the acquirer would be a non-resident or a CIT taxpayer;

(vi) the explicit yield derived from the Notes being transferred is exempt from withholding tax.

In any event, the individual holder may credit the withholding tax applied by Ibercaja Banco against his or her final PIT liability for the relevant tax year.

Reporting Obligations

Ibercaja Banco will comply with the reporting obligations set forth in the Spanish tax laws with respect to beneficial owners of the Notes that are individuals resident in Spain for tax purposes.

Wealth Tax (Impuesto sobre el Patrimonio)

According to Wealth Tax regulations (subject to any exceptions provided under relevant legislation in each autonomous region (Comunidad Autónoma), individuals with tax residency in Spain would be subject to Wealth Tax to the extent that their net worth exceeds €700,000 (subject to any exceptions provided under relevant legislation in an autonomous region (Comunidad Autónoma). Therefore, they should take into account the value of the Notes which they hold as of 31 December in each year, the applicable rates ranging between 0.2% and 3.5% although the final tax rates may vary depending on any applicable regional tax laws, and some reductions may apply.

Inheritance and Gift Tax (Impuesto sobre Sucesiones y Donaciones)

Individuals with tax residency in Spain who acquire ownership or other rights over any Notes by inheritance, gift or legacy will be subject to inheritance and gift tax in accordance with the applicable Spanish regional or state rules. The applicable rates range between 7.65% and 81.6%, although the final tax rate may vary depending on any applicable regional tax laws. Some tax benefits could reduce the effective tax rate.

(b) Spanish tax resident legal entities

Corporate Income Tax (Impuesto sobre Sociedades)

Both interest periodically received and income derived from the transfer, redemption or repayment of the Notes are subject to CIT at the current general flat tax rate of 25%

However, this general rate will not be applicable to all CIT taxpayers and, for instance, it will not apply to banking institutions (which will be taxed at the rate of 30%).

No withholding on account of CIT will be imposed on interest payments or on income derived from the redemption or repayment of the Notes, by Spanish CIT taxpayers provided that certain requirements are met (including that the Iberclear Members that have the Notes registered in their securities account on behalf of third parties, as well as the entities that manage the clearing systems located outside Spain that have an agreement with Iberclear, provide Ibercaja Banco, in a timely manner, with a duly executed and completed Payment Statement, as defined below). See “—Compliance with certain requirements in connection with income payments”.

With regard to income derived from the transfer of the Notes, in accordance with Article 61.q of the CIT Regulations, there is no obligation to withhold on income derived from the Notes obtained by Spanish CIT taxpayers (which include Spanish tax resident investment funds and Spanish tax resident pension funds) provided that the Notes are:

- (i) registered by way of book entries; and
- (ii) negotiated in a Spanish official secondary market, such as AIAF.

Reporting Obligations

Ibercaja Banco will comply with the reporting obligations set forth in the Spanish tax laws with respect to beneficial owners of the Notes that are legal persons or entities resident in Spain for tax purposes.

Wealth Tax (Impuesto sobre el Patrimonio)

Legal entities resident in Spain for tax purposes that acquire ownership or other rights over the Notes are not subject to Spanish Wealth Tax.

Inheritance and Gift Tax (Impuesto sobre Sucesiones y Donaciones)

Legal entities resident in Spain for tax purposes that acquire ownership or other rights over the Notes by inheritance, gift or legacy are not subject to the Inheritance and Gift Tax but generally must include the market value of the Notes in their taxable income for CIT purposes.

(c) Individuals and legal entities that are not tax resident in Spain

- (i) Investors that are not resident in Spain for tax purposes, acting in respect of the Notes through a permanent establishment in Spain

Non-resident Income Tax (Impuesto sobre la Renta de no Residentes)

If the Notes form part of the assets affected to a permanent establishment in Spain of a person or legal entity that is not resident in Spain for tax purposes, the tax rules applicable to income deriving from such Notes are, generally, the same as those set forth above for Spanish CIT taxpayers. See “—Spanish tax resident legal entities—corporate income Tax (Impuesto sobre Sociedades)”.

Ownership of the Notes by investors who are not resident in Spain for tax purposes will not in itself create the existence of a permanent establishment in Spain.

Reporting Obligations

Ibercaja Banco will comply with the reporting obligations set forth under Spanish tax laws with respect to beneficial owners of the Notes that are individuals or legal entities not resident in Spain for tax purposes and that act with respect to the Notes through a permanent establishment in Spain.

- (ii) Investors that are not resident in Spain for tax purposes, not acting in respect of the Notes through a permanent establishment in Spain

Non-resident Income Tax (Impuesto sobre la Renta de no Residentes)

Both interest payments periodically received under the Notes and income derived from the transfer, redemption or repayment of the Notes, obtained by individuals or entities who are not resident in Spain for tax purposes and who do not act, with respect to the Notes, through a permanent establishment in Spain, are exempt from NRIT and therefore no withholding on account of NRIT will be levied on such income provided certain requirements are met.

In order to be eligible for the exemption from NRIT, certain requirements must be met (including that, in respect of interest payments from the Notes carried out by Ibercaja Banco, the Iberclear Members that have the Notes registered in their securities account on behalf of third parties, as well as the entities that manage the clearing systems located outside Spain that have an agreement with Iberclear, provide Ibercaja Banco, in a timely manner, with a duly executed and completed Payment Statement, as defined below), as set forth in Article 44 of Royal Decree 1065/2007. See “—Compliance with certain requirements in connection with income payments”.

If the Iberclear Members fail or for any reason are unable to deliver a duly executed and completed Payment Statement to Ibercaja Banco in a timely manner in respect of a payment of interest under the Notes, Ibercaja Banco will withhold Spanish withholding tax at the applicable rate (currently 19%) on such payment of income on the Notes and Ibercaja Banco will not pay additional amounts with respect to any such withholding tax.

A beneficial owner who is not resident in Spain for tax purposes and entitled to exemption from NRIT, but to whom payment was not exempt from Spanish withholding tax due to a failure on the delivery of a duly executed and completed Payment Statement to Ibercaja Banco, will receive a refund of the amount withheld, with no need for action on the beneficial owner's part, if Ibercaja Banco receives a duly executed and completed Payment Statement no later than the tenth calendar day of the month immediately following the relevant payment date.

In addition, beneficial owners of the Notes may apply directly to the Spanish tax authorities for any refund to which they may be entitled, according to the procedures set forth in the NRIT Law and its regulations.

Wealth Tax (Impuesto sobre el Patrimonio)

According to Wealth Tax regulations, non-Spanish resident individuals whose properties and rights located in Spain, or that can be exercised within the Spanish territory exceed €700,000 would be subject to Wealth Tax, the applicable rates ranging between 0.2% and 3.5% although the final tax rates may vary depending on any applicable regional tax laws, and some reductions may apply.

However, non-Spanish resident individuals will be exempt from Wealth Tax in respect of the Notes which income is exempt from NRIT as described above.

Individuals resident in a country with which Spain has entered into a double tax treaty in relation to the Wealth Tax would generally not be subject to such tax.

Individuals that are not resident in Spain for tax purposes may apply the rules approved by the autonomous region where the assets and rights with more value (i) are located, (ii) can be exercised or (iii) must be fulfilled.

Non-Spanish resident legal entities are not subject to Wealth Tax.

Inheritance and Gift Tax (Impuesto sobre Sucesiones y Donaciones)

Individuals who do not have tax residency in Spain who acquire ownership or other rights over the Notes by inheritance, gift or legacy, and who reside in a country with which Spain has entered into a double tax treaty in relation to inheritance and gift tax will be subject to the relevant double tax treaty.

If no treaty for the avoidance of double taxation in relation to Inheritance and Gift Tax applies, applicable Inheritance and Gift Tax rates would range between 7.65% and 81.6%, depending on relevant factors.

Generally, non-Spanish tax resident individuals are subject to Inheritance and Gift Tax according to the rules set forth in the Spanish state level or relevant autonomous region law. As such, prospective investors should consult their tax advisers.

Non-Spanish resident legal entities which acquire ownership or other rights over the Notes by inheritance, gift or legacy are not subject to inheritance and gift tax. They will be subject to NRIT.

If the legal entity is resident in a country with which Spain has entered into a double tax treaty, the provisions of such treaty will apply. In general, double-tax treaties provide for the taxation of this type of income in the country of residence of the beneficiary.

(d) Compliance with certain requirements in connection with income payments

As described under “Spanish tax resident legal entities—Corporate Income Tax (Impuesto sobre Sociedades)”, “—Individuals and legal entities that are not tax resident in Spain”, provided the conditions set forth in Law 10/2014 are met, income payments made by Ibercaja Banco in respect of the Notes for the benefit of Spanish CIT taxpayers, or for the benefit of non-Spanish tax resident investors will not be subject to Spanish withholding tax, provided that the Iberclear Members that have the Notes registered in their securities account on behalf of third parties, as well as the entities that manage the clearing systems located outside Spain that have an agreement with Iberclear, if applicable, provide Ibercaja Banco, in a timely manner, with a duly executed and completed statement (a “Payment Statement”) (which is attached as Annex I), in accordance with section 4 of Article 44 of Royal Decree 1065/2007 containing the following information:

- (i) Identification of the Notes.
- (ii) Total amount of the income paid by Ibercaja Banco.
- (iii) Amount of the income corresponding to individual residents in Spain that are PIT taxpayers.
- (iv) Amount of the income that must be paid on a gross basis.

If the Iberclear Members fail or for any reason are unable to deliver a duly executed and completed Payment Statement to Ibercaja Banco in a timely manner in respect of a payment of income made by Ibercaja Banco under the Notes, such payment will be made net of Spanish withholding tax, currently at the rate of 19%. If this were to occur, affected beneficial owners will receive a refund of the amount withheld, with no need for action on their part, if the Iberclear Members submit a duly executed and completed Payment Statement to Ibercaja Banco no later than the tenth calendar day of the month immediately following the relevant payment date. In addition, beneficial owners may apply directly to the Spanish tax authorities for any refund to which they may be entitled, according to the procedures set forth in the Spanish NRIT Law.

Prospective investors should note that Ibercaja Banco does not accept any responsibility relating to the lack of delivery of a duly executed and completed Payment Statement by the Iberclear Members in connection with each payment of income under the Notes. Accordingly, Ibercaja Banco will not be liable for any damage or loss suffered by any beneficial owner who would otherwise be entitled to an exemption from Spanish withholding tax but whose income payments are nonetheless paid net of Spanish withholding tax because the Payment Statement was not duly delivered to Ibercaja Banco. Moreover, Ibercaja Banco will not pay any additional amounts with respect to any such withholding tax.

The proposed financial transactions tax (“FTT”)

On 14 February 2013, the European Commission published a proposal (the “Commission’s proposal”) for a Directive for a common FTT in Belgium, Germany, Estonia, Greece, Spain, France, Italy, Austria, Portugal, Slovenia and Slovakia (the “participating Member States”). However, Estonia has ceased to participate.

The Commission’s proposal has very broad scope and could, if introduced, apply to certain dealings in the Notes (including secondary market transactions) in certain circumstances.

Under the Commission's proposal, FTT could apply in certain circumstances to persons both within and outside of the participating Member States. Generally, it would apply to certain dealings in the Notes where at least one party is a financial institution, and at least one party is established in a participating Member State. A financial institution may be, or be deemed to be, "established" in a participating Member State in a broad range of circumstances, including (a) by transacting with a person established in a participating Member State or (b) where the financial instrument which is subject to the dealings is issued in a participating Member State.

However, the FTT proposal remains subject to negotiation between participating Member States. It may therefore be altered prior to any implementation, the timing of which remains unclear. Additional EU Member States may decide to participate.

Prospective holders of the Notes are advised to seek their own professional advice in relation to the FTT.

The Spanish financial transactions tax

On 16 October 2020, the Spanish Parliament approved the Law 5/2020, of 15 October, on the Tax on Financial Transactions ("Spanish FTT Law") introducing the Spanish Financial Transaction Tax ("Spanish FTT") that entered into force on 16 January 2021.

The Spanish FTT is aligned with the French and Italian financial transactions tax. Specifically, the Spanish FTT is an indirect tax levied at a rate of 0.2% on the acquisitions for consideration of shares issued by Spanish companies regardless of the residency of the parties involved in the transaction, or of the jurisdiction where the shares are traded, provided that they comply with the following conditions: (i) the shares should be admitted to trading on a regulated market under MiFID II (or in a foreign market declared equivalent by the European Commission), and (ii) the stock market capitalization value of the company should exceed €1,000,000,000. The Spanish FTT will be payable on a monthly basis.

However, according to the Spanish FTT Law, the Spanish FTT should not apply in relation to the Notes.

FATCA

Pursuant to certain provisions of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, commonly known as FATCA, a "foreign financial institution" may be required to withhold on certain payments it makes ("foreign passthru payments") to persons that fail to meet certain certification, reporting, or related requirements. The Bank may be a foreign financial institution for these purposes. A number of jurisdictions (including the jurisdiction of the Bank) have entered into, or have agreed in substance to, intergovernmental agreements with the United States to implement FATCA ("IGAs"), which modify the way in which FATCA applies in their jurisdictions. Under the provisions of IGAs as currently in effect, a foreign financial institution in an IGA jurisdiction would generally not be required to withhold under FATCA or an IGA from payments that it makes. Certain aspects of the application of the FATCA provisions and IGAs to instruments such as the Notes, including whether withholding would ever be required pursuant to FATCA or an IGA with respect to payments on instruments such as the Notes, are uncertain and may be subject to change. Even if withholding would be required pursuant to FATCA or an IGA with respect to payments on instruments such as the Notes, such withholding would not apply prior to the date that is two years after the publication of the final regulations defining "foreign passthru payment". Holders should consult their own tax advisors regarding how these rules may apply to their investment in the Notes. In the event any withholding would be required pursuant to FATCA or an IGA with respect to payments on the Notes, no person will be required to pay additional amounts as a result of the withholding.

MARKET INFORMATION

Summary of clearance and settlement procedures

Below is a brief summary of the Spanish clearance and settlement procedures applicable to book-entry securities such as the Notes of Ibercaja Banco.

The Spanish clearing, settlement and recording system of securities transactions has undergone a significant reform to align it with the EU practices and standards and prepare it for the implementation of future integration projects (the “Reform”). Following the Reform, which implementation was completed by 18 September 2017, the Spanish clearing, settlement and registry procedures of securities transactions allows the connection of the post-trading Spanish systems to the European system TARGET2 Securities.

The Reform has introduced three main changes that, in turn, involve a number of operating modifications. These changes include (i) a new recording system based on balances, (ii) the introduction of a central clearing counterparty (BME Clearing, S.A., “BME Clearing” or the “CCP”), and (iii) the integration of the current CADE (Central de Anotaciones de Deuda Pública) and SCLV (Servicio de Compensación y Liquidación de Valores) into a single platform managed by Iberclear which operates under the trade name of ARCO.

Iberclear and BME Clearing

Iberclear is the Spanish central securities depository in charge of both the register of securities held in book-entry form (anotaciones en cuenta), and the settlement of all trades from the Spanish Stock Exchanges, Latibex (the Latin American stock exchange denominated in Euro), the Alternative Stock Market (BME Growth), Alternative Fixed Income Market (MARF) and AIAF. To achieve this, Iberclear uses the technical platforms named ARCO.

Iberclear and BME Clearing are owned by BME Bolsas y Mercados Españoles, Sociedad Holding de Mercados y Sistemas Financieros, S.A. (“BME”), a holding company controlled by SIX Group, which holds a 100% interest in each of the Spanish official secondary markets and settlement systems. The corporate address of Iberclear is Plaza de la Lealtad 1, 28014 Madrid, Spain.

The securities recording system of Iberclear is a two tier registry: the keeping of the central record corresponds to Iberclear and the keeping of the detail records correspond to the participating entities (entidades participantes) in Iberclear.

Access to become a participating entity is restricted to (i) credit institutions, (ii) investment services companies which are authorised to render custody and administration of financial instruments, (iii) the Bank of Spain, (iv) the General Administration and the General Social Security Treasury, (v) other duly authorised central securities depositories and central clearing counterparties and (vi) other public institutions and private entities when expressly authorised to become a participating entity in central securities depositories.

The central registry managed by Iberclear reflects (i) one or several proprietary accounts which show the balances of the participating entities’ proprietary accounts; (ii) one or several general third-party accounts that will show the overall balances that the participating entities hold for third parties; (iii) individual accounts opened in the name of the owner, either individual or legal person; and (iv) individual special accounts of financial intermediaries which use the optional procedure of settlement of orders. Each participating entity, in turn, maintains the detail records of the owners of the securities or the shares held in their general third-party accounts.

According to the above, Spanish law considers the owner of the securities to be:

- the participating entity appearing in the records of Iberclear as holding the relevant securities in its own name;

- the investor appearing in the records of the participating entity as holding the securities; or
- the investor appearing in the records of Iberclear as holding securities in a segregated individual account.

BME Clearing is the CCP in charge of the clearing of transactions closed on the Spanish Stock Exchanges. BME Clearing interposes itself on its own account as seller in every purchase and as buyer in every sale. It calculates the buy and sell positions vis-à-vis the participants designated in such buy or sell instructions. The CCP then generates and send to Iberclear the relevant settlement instructions. BME Clearing is also owned by BME.

The settlement and book-entry registration platform managed by Iberclear, which operates under the trade name of ARCO (for both equity securities and fixed-income securities as from September 2017), receives the settlement instructions from BME Clearing and forwards them to the relevant participating entities involved in each transaction. ARCO operates under a T+2 settlement standard, by which any transactions must be settled within two business days following the date on which the transaction was completed.

To evidence title to securities, at the owner's request the relevant participating entity must issue a legitimization certificate (certificado de legitimación). If the owner is a participating entity or a person holding securities in a segregated individual account, Iberclear is in charge of the issuance of the certificate regarding the securities held in their name.

Market Information in relation to the Notes

Iberclear settlement of securities traded in AIAF

Iberclear and the participating entities (entidades participantes) in Iberclear have the function of keeping the book-entry register of securities traded on AIAF.

Securities traded in AIAF are fixed income securities, including corporate bonds (for example, medium term Notes and mortgage bonds) and bonds issued by the Spanish Treasury and Spanish regions, among others, represented either in a dematerialised form or by certificates.

In the AIAF settlement system, transactions may be settled spot, forward (settlement date more than five days after the relevant trade date), with a repurchase agreement on a fixed date and double or simultaneous transactions (two trades in opposite directions with different settlement dates).

The settlement system used for securities admitted for trading in AIAF is the Model 1 delivery versus payment system, as per the classification of the Bank for International Settlements: that is, it is a “transaction-to-transaction” cash and securities settlement system with simultaneity in its finality.

Transactions are settled on the stock-exchange business day agreed by participants at the moment of the trade.

Euroclear and Clearstream

Investors who do not have, directly or indirectly through their custodians, a participating account with Iberclear may hold their investment in the Notes through bridge accounts maintained by each of Euroclear Bank SA/NV and Clearstream Banking, S.A. with participating entities in Iberclear.

Stabilisation

In connection with the issue of the Notes, Banco Bilbao Vizcaya Argentaria, S.A. (the "Stabilisation Manager") (or persons acting on behalf of any Stabilisation Manager) may over allot Notes or effect transactions with a view to supporting the market price of the Notes at a level higher than that which might otherwise prevail. However, stabilisation may not necessarily occur. Any stabilisation action may begin on or after the date on which adequate public disclosure of the terms of the offer of the Notes is made and, if begun, may cease at any time, but it must end no later than the earlier of 30 days after the issue date of the Notes and 60 days after the date of the allotment of the Notes. Any stabilisation action or over allotment must be conducted by the relevant Stabilisation Manager (or person(s) acting on behalf of any Stabilisation Manager) in accordance with Regulation (EU) No 596/2014 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 16 April 2014 on market abuse (Market Abuse Regulation) and any other applicable laws and rules.

Other relationships

The Lead Manager and its affiliates have engaged, and may in the future engage, in investment banking and/or commercial banking transactions with, and may perform services for, Ibercaja Banco and its affiliates in the ordinary course of business. In addition, in the ordinary course of their business activities, the Lead Manager and its affiliates may make or hold a broad array of investments and actively trade debt and equity securities (or related derivative securities) and financial instruments (including bank loans) for their own account and for the accounts of their customers. Such investments and securities activities may involve securities and/or instruments of Ibercaja Banco or its affiliates. The Lead Managers or its affiliates that have a lending relationship with Ibercaja Banco routinely hedge their credit exposure to Ibercaja Banco consistent with their customary risk management policies. Typically, the Lead Manager and its affiliates would hedge such exposure by entering into transactions which consist of either the purchase of credit default swaps or the creation of short positions in securities, including potentially the Notes issued under the Prospectus. Any such short positions could adversely affect future trading prices of Notes issued under the Prospectus. The Lead Manager and its affiliates may also make investment recommendations and/or publish or express independent research views in respect of such securities or financial instruments and may hold, or recommend to clients that they acquire, long and/or short positions in such securities and instruments.
